

SENATE IS OCCUPIED WITH CURRENCY BILL

PRESIDENT ABANDONS TRIP TO PANAMA IN ORDER TO STUDY REFORM MEASURE.

RATIFY TARIFF REPORT

House Will Take Action of Conference Report Before Final Adjournment Tonight.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, Sept. 30.—Currency legislation loomed up today as a paramount issue on the senate side of the capitol with the administration tariff law within a few days of the statute books. A series of conferences at the White House and at the capitol endeavored to bring some sort of order out of the confused situation surrounding the administration in currency bill in the senate banking and currency committee.

Wilson Studies Bill.
President Wilson, it became known today, has determined to remain in Washington as long as the currency bill is under consideration, and has abandoned the idea of going to Panama this fall. The president began the day plunging into the currency question with Owen and Shafroth and Secretary McAdoo.

Following this conference work framing the bill as it will be presented to the senate is progressing satisfactorily.

Will Ratify Report.
The house met today with the expectation that it would agree to the conference report on the tariff bill before final adjournment tonight. It was expected that the day would give up to debate on the conference agreement with a vote at its conclusion as to the acceptance of the conference report.

UNDWOOD SPEAKS.
"The rates of the tariff bill as it comes back to the house for approval propose a lower taxation than any tariff bill in the last three-quarters of a century," said Representative Oscar W. Underwood, democratic leader of the house, in the opening speech today in support of the conference report on the tariff bill.

"The bill as it now is before the house is lower in its rates than either the bill that passed the house or the bill that passed the senate, for the house conferees accepted all but three or four of the reductions made by the senate while the senate receded from over one-half of its increases.

Representative Underwood's statement was greeted with applause from the crowded democratic side of the house. In contrast with the average tariff of 26 per cent ad valorem in the Underwood-Simmons bill he said the existing Payne law was an average of 40 per cent and the Wilson bill passed by the last democratic administration had an average of over 39 per cent.

LA CROSSE DISPOSES OF WEALTHY PAUPER

Man Worth $10,000 But Long a Public Charge Given a Guardian and Placed in Alms House.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
La Crosse, Sept. 30.—With $10,000 but still a pauper, that's the position of Ole Nestinger, who yesterday was given a guardian by the circuit court and placed in the alms house. Evidence taken by the court showed that Nestinger was worth in the neighborhood of $10,000 but had become a nuisance to the police by his habit of provoking about his hole and residences and eating out of garbage cans. He was sent to jail but was released because he had committed no crime. He was committed to the insane hospital, but sent back because he was not insane. The police periodically took him to the alms house to be cleaned up until the alms house people refused to care for him any longer on the ground that he would drive all other trade away. So the authorities were in a quandary, and as the only solution was to appoint and Nestinger was sent to the poor farm with the understanding that his guardian should pay for his keep out of Nestinger's property.

SEEK ENFORCEMENT PROHIBITION LAWS

Tennessee Legislature in Special Session to Consider Temperance Matters

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 30.—Calling a second extraordinary session of the Tennessee legislature to consider prohibition law enforcement bills, Governor Hooper in his proclamation today says: "The question which now confronts the people is 'Shall the laws of the state be enforced in the cities as well as in the country, or shall the outlawed saloons corrupt dominate not only the cities but the legislature and the entire state?'"
The enforcement bills were killed by a filibuster in the lower house of the legislature.

METHODIST CONFERENCE IN MINNESOTA CITY

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Detroit, Minn., Sept. 30.—About two hundred delegates of the Northern Minnesota Methodist church assembled in the Methodist church this morning to attend the opening of the nineteenth annual conference of that church, which will continue in session six days, closing its work next Sunday. Bishop W. A. Quayle of St. Paul, who will preside at the conference, opened the session this morning by dedicating and dedicating the Pulch, Minneapolis, Litchfield and Fergus Falls.

PRISONER ESCAPES IN SPITE OF GUARDS

Desperate Character Escapes From West Virginia Institution Early Today.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Moundsville, W. Va., Sept. 30.—Hiding about the state prison here since Saturday night and aided by one hundred guards, Alexander Childs, serving a twenty years' sentence, made his escape from the prison about 2:30 this morning by sliding down a rope from a window eight feet from the ground. Childs was known as one of the most desperate prisoners of the more than one thousand in the institution. Several times yesterday the guards caught glimpses of him as he made from one hiding place to another, and every known avenue of escape was thought to have been shut off. Despite all precautions he succeeded in getting outside the prison walls and at daybreak the fleeing prisoner was seen about ten miles from the prison still wearing his prison stripes and armed with a revolver with which he drove off persons bent on his capture.

VARSITY FRESHMAN IN A HEROIC ROLE

His Knowledge of Resuscitation Saves Life of Fellow Student Overcome by Gas Fumes.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Madison, Sept. 30.—A university freshman's knowledge of resuscitation saved the life of Carl Hackett, of the University of Wisconsin, this morning. Arthur Hoch, a first year man of Huntington, Ind., climbed across a ventilation shaft into Hackett's room and turned on the gas which had been blown out. Hackett was found nearly drowned in the bath tub and almost asphyxiated.
Hoch put him through respiration exercises and a physician later brought him back to consciousness.

VIENESE LAUNDRESS FINALLY DEPORTED

Woman Who Claimed Prince Sulkow-iski Jilted Her Found to Be Undesirable Alien.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Sept. 30.—Mrs. Clara Melcher, the Viennese laundress, who said Prince Stanislas Sulkowski promised to marry her, only to jilt her when she followed him to this country, was taken aboard a steamship for deportation today. She was brought here from California as an undesirable alien. The prince married Miss Marie Louise Freese, a wealthy California girl.

CONTINUE AT WORK TO RESCUE MINERS

Expect to Save Life of Man En-tomb in Centralia Mine Since Last Friday.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Centralia, Pa., Sept. 30.—Rescuers were still at work today trying to save the life of Thomas Toshosky, the miner who was entombed last Friday morning in the Continental mine of the Lehigh Valley Coal company. A hole has been bored through the wall of coal behind which he is imprisoned and today a tube was inserted, through which he is being fed.
A bottle of milk was worked through the hole to him and after the tubing had been inserted to prevent the hole from closing he was served with milk and eggs.

WISCONSIN FARMERS HARVEST BIG CROP

Badger State Crops Average Above Normal While Country at Large Suffers Slump.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Sept. 30.—That the Wisconsin farmer will be better paid for his superior produce and products this season than at any time in recent history is the belief of H. L. Russell, dean of the state agricultural college, who has lately made an extended trip through the state. In support of his contention, he says that while the crop yields of the other great food producing states have been materially diminished by the drought, Wisconsin farmers have never on the whole, harvested better crops than during the present season.

"While the officials of the government crop reporting bureau," said the dean, "have lately estimated crop conditions for the entire country at about 10 per cent below the average of recent years, I am convinced that reports from the various sections of Wisconsin would even average considerably above the national average of the state and that in most instances have been drought stricken this summer. The rainfall in Wisconsin has been quite general and the distribution has been quite general."

Dean Russell attributed this season's success in part to improved farming method adopted by Wisconsin farmers.

WISCONSIN FREEMAN BAPTISTS HAVE DISSOLVED CORPORATION

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Sept. 30.—In accordance with an act passed by the 1913 legislature authorizing the change, the trustees of the Wisconsin Yearly Meeting of Freewill Baptists, in session at Fairwater, Wis., Sept. 25, voted to dissolve the corporation.
The resolution filed with the secretary of state provides that all property coming to the corporation shall inure to the benefit of the Wisconsin Baptist state convention, and that the affairs of the corporation shall be wound up. Rev. P. Kiser is president and Rev. George C. Albion secretary of the convention.

PLEA FOR BUILDING OF BUSINESS ROADS MADE TO CONGRESS

Congressman Schackelford Believes
They Should Have Preference
Over Touring Highways.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Detroit, Mich., Sept. 30.—Urging support of "business roads" as opposed to so-called "touring roads," Congressman Schackelford, chairman of the house committee on roads, in an address before the American Road Congress here today admitted he was "not in harmony with the dominant spirit" of the congress. He urged support for the "business roads" class which, he said, aimed for "cheaper transportation and lower cost of living."

"The 'touring roads' class," declared Representative Schackelford, "demand that the United States shall build its good road activities to the construction and maintenance of a few 'ocean to ocean' and 'across country' highways of great perfection and then leave the rest of the people to build their own roads." The "business roads" class believes that in dealing with roads we must keep in mind easy communications between the farm and the towns and the railway stations, so the farmer may market his crops at less expense and the town dweller may get farm products more easily at less cost.

"The 'touring roads' class desires to get away as far as possible from local control to accomplish this a bill is pending in congress which provides that a new office shall be created—that of public highway commissioner—who shall keep his office at Washington where he may not be influenced nor even impressed by the yearnings of the people among whom the roads should radiate. The bill also provides that all questions as to location, method of construction and maintenance shall be finally determined by the commissioner of public highways.

"If such a provision as that shall ever be written into a federal law the joy riders will indeed reign supreme."
"It is not a road, nor yet a few roads that we want. What we must have is a general system of good roads extending throughout the length and breadth of the land."

"Touring roads" to be built in expensive "If you want 10 miles of expensive
'touring roads' to be built in 'business' and 'post roads' to be built in five years, I appeal to you to withdraw your opposition to a plain people's plan which we desire to pass through congress at the next session.
Our plan will not be expensive and a vast majority of the people favor it."

ARRESTED AVIATOR BOUND FOR LONDON

German Flyer Who Landed on French Soil Believed to be Lieutenant Steffen of German Army.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Berlin, Germany, Sept. 30.—The German aviator who was arrested yesterday near Boulogne when he landed with his biplane on French soil, is said by the military authorities here to be Lieutenant Steffen of the German army. He ascended from the Johannesthal aerodrome yesterday with the intention of flying to London. He made a landing at Brunsels, Belgium, about noon and at three o'clock in the afternoon ascended again and continued his journey.

Lieutenant Steffen distinguished himself in the recent army maneuvers, here and is regarded as one of the most capable German military aviators.

CONDITION OF LODGE REPORTED IMPROVED

Comfortable Night Passed by United States Senator from Massachusetts—Physicians Hopeful.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Nahant, Mass., Sept. 30.—A comfortable night was passed by United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, who has been in a serious condition for some days, as a result of an illness which necessitated an operation last Friday for the removal of a gas trouble. This was the word which came from his home in the seclusion of this penitential town today. It was added that the senator was better than his physicians expected.

NO WHOLESALE EXCUSES
FROM MILITARY DRILL

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Sept. 30.—Official notice that no more wholesale excuses from military drill will be allowed has been given the student body at the state university by Commandant
P. G. Wrigginton. All male freshmen, regardless of whether they are foreigners, normal school graduates, adult specials, or have had previous military service, physical disability or other status are commanded to report to the commandant for resignation in the military department.

A fake "official" report from some upper classmen that the university regiment would be sent to Mexico resulted in both consternation and enthusiasm among the yearlings.

"I don't intend to fight," asserted one little "fresh" with big tortois-shell rimmed glasses, "but my parents sent me to the university to get an education and I don't think it would be right to go off and waste my time fighting a lot of jiggers. Besides I've got a weak heart."

Another argued it would be a lot more exciting than studying Greek, and they also might have a chance of "getting a silver mine or something."

DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY
IN VIRGINIA CONVENT

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Richmond, Va., Sept. 30.—Every chapter in Virginia of the Daughters of the Confederacy is represented by delegates in the annual state convention of that organization which opened here today. The session in session through the rest of the week. The local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy and the citizens of Richmond have combined their efforts to make everything as pleasant as possible for the visiting delegates and a highly interesting program has been arranged for their entertainment.

CALUMET STRIKERS ATTACK DETECTIVES HIRED BY COMPANY

Frequent Shots Are Exchanged in Engagement Between Strike-Breakers and Union Workmen.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Calumet, Mich., Sept. 30.—Shots fired in two attacks upon strike breakers and numerous fights between union and non-union miners marked the copper mine strike today.

A special car with thirty men from a New York detective agency brought here by the Ahmeek Mining company to assist in breaking the copper strike was attacked presumably by strikers when it arrived at Ahmeek. A number of shots were fired at the car and the first was returned. The car windows were broken by stones hurled at them, but no one was hurt. When a barricade across the tracks prevented the car from reaching the mine it was brought back to Calumet.
A few hours later when the men returned to Ahmeek by automobiles many shots were again exchanged.
Only one of the autos was hit and so far as known no one on either side was wounded.

Disorder was rampant in the Calumet and Keweenaw districts following the dissolution by Circuit Judge O'Brien of the injunction against picketing and interference with working by strikers. Attacks on men going to work were numerous and several arrests were made by militia and civil officers. The strikers were wildly demonstrative and women sympatizers again were much in evidence. The women were among those arrested.

Dinner pails were snatched from workmen and smashed on the streets and the officers were hooted. General
P. L. Abbey in charge of the 200 state troops considers the situation serious.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST MEETING AT TORONTO

International Missionary Convention Opened With About Five Thousand Members Attending.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Toronto, Ont., Sept. 30.—The international missionary convention of the Disciples of Christ which opened here today with about 5000 members in attendance is the first convention of its kind ever held in America. All members of the United States are represented by delegates, especially the states of the Middle and Central West, which are the stronghold of the sect.

According to the reports submitted the sect is in a flourishing condition and is steadily gaining in membership. During the year Sunday schools have been established in many places in the middle and central West and in the northwestern provinces of Canada. There is now a Sunday school in Ponoka, Alberta, probably the most northerly point where a Sunday school is maintained by any religious organization. An effort will be made to draw disciples from the middle western states to the Canadian Northwest, where the sect has gained a strong foothold.

The Rev. Dr. Peter Ahlstedt of Baltimore, who spent the summer in England in the interest of the church unity movement, delivered an interesting address, giving an account of his experiences. There were also reports on home and foreign work and on the work carried on by the women.

FORMER WISCONSIN MAN TO HEAD ARKANSAS AGGIES

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Sept. 30.—The regents of the University of Arkansas have elected Martin Nelson, a graduate of the Wisconsin college of agriculture in 1905, dean of their agriculture college. For several years he has been connected with the institution as chief of the department of field crops.

"BLUE SKY" LAW IN EFFECT
IN WISCONSIN TOMORROW

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Madison, Sept. 30.—In order to be ready to operate under the blue sky law which goes into effect tomorrow, scores of applications for licenses were received by the railroad commission from investment companies and their agents today. Commissioner Erickson is giving his time to outlining plans for enforcing the act.

Helping Mrs. Homebody

The articles designed to save labor in the kitchen are numbered by the tens of thousands.

In the stock of a modern housewares store are frequently as many as 50,000 different articles.

And for each thing the mother has stocked she has probably excluded ten others.

Wise women keep posted on the new labor saving devices.

They visit the stores when they can. They read the advertising in the daily newspapers every day.

They want to know. They want to be efficient. They want to save labor, and time, and trouble.

This is the season when the advertising of the stores is particularly interesting. Turn over today's Gazette and see for yourself.

There are 50,000 devices for helping Mrs. Homebody, but none so good nor so inexpensive—none really so helpful—as the advertising in your favorite daily newspaper.

ACT ON A NEW CLUE TO FIND MURDERER OF TANGO TEACHER

State's Attorney and Corps of Detectives Bombard Building on South Side, Chicago, for Slayer of Mrs. Rexroat.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, Ill., Sept. 30.—Acting upon an entirely new clue, State's Attorney Hadden of Whelan at the head of a dozen Chicago detectives early today laid siege to a building on the south side where they hope to apprehend the slayer of Mrs. Mildred Allison, Rexroat, the tango teacher, who was shot Friday night and her body placed on the railroad tracks.

The state's attorney and Sheriff Kuhn returned to Chicago last night following a statement from a young man who asserted he knew the identity of the murderer who is supposed to have used the name of Spencer.
The informant said the murderer formerly lived at Bushy, Illinois, and worked as a "bonjour" at a dance hall three years ago in an amusement park where Mrs. Rexroat was employed. He said the man attended the dance at O'Brien's Academy, and it was there that Mrs. Rexroat made the appointment to go on an errand which led to her murder.

He described the man as answering the appearance of the slayer and said he believed him to be passing under the name of Spencer.

The story was corroborated to some extent by W. H. Allison, Mrs.
Rexroat's first husband. He said his former wife told him about the fellow and promised she would drop him as he "seemed deep and queer."

That the murderer is a man, who from his familiarity with the vicinity of Whelan, is believed to have once lived in the neighborhood of the officers. That he must have learned of a similar murder about two miles from where Mrs. Rexroat's body was found and which occurred years ago, is also their belief.
That he came to Chicago some time last Saturday is indicated by the finding yesterday in the yards on the south side of the C. & N. Y. railroad of false hair which Mrs. Rexroat carried and which she took with her on her fatal trip.

The body of Mrs. Rexroat will be buried by her first husband, William Henry Allison.

FEDERAL GAME LAWS EFFECTIVE TOMORROW

Divides United States Into Two Zones Comprising Wintering and Breeding Zones.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—With the stroke of midnight tonight the new Federal Game Law, adopted by Congress for the purpose of giving more effective protection to migratory game birds, will go into effect.
In accordance with the provisions of the law the Department of Agriculture has published and widely distributed throughout the country pamphlets containing the complete text of the law and smaller circulars with brief and condensed extracts of the most important sections of the law for the guidance of the hunters and of the game wardens and other authorities whose duty it is to enforce the new regulations.

SUFFRAGETTES BURN HISTORIC MANSION

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Dover, Eng., Sept. 30.—Another of England's famous old historic homes, Waldershire Park mansion, residence of Earl of Gifford, was destroyed by fire early today.

The house, which was the seat of Lord Gifford, who was in the residence, succeeded in saving many of the valuable paintings and some of the finest furniture. No evidence was found to connect the suffragettes with the fire.

STEEL TRUST SUIT HEARINGS RESUMED

Defense Will Continue Submission of Case at New York Tomorrow.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Philadelphia, Sept. 30.—Hearings in the anti-trust suit of the federal government against the United States steel corporation will be resumed in New York tomorrow. When the sessions were suspended in June the government had closed its direct examination of witnesses against the corporation, and the defense had begun to present its side. The case has been under way nearly two years.

ALBANIAN AMAZONS ENGAGE IN WARFARE

Women Fight Side by Side With Husbands and Brothers in Fighting Against the Albanian Capital.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Vienna, Sept. 30.—Women are taking an active part in the fighting in Albania according to dispatches received here from the Albanian capital. Many Albanian Amazons armed with katchets fought heroically shoulder to shoulder with their husbands, sons and brothers during the street fighting in which as many as 1,000 were killed and 300 taken prisoners on Sept. 23.

CITY SCHOOL HEADS AT MADISON HEADS

Prominent Speakers Engaged for Annual Meeting of City Superintendents.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Sept. 30.—The city superintendents of schools of the state will meet in annual session here Friday and Saturday, upon call of State Superintendent Cary. The principal addresses will be by Prof.
James F. Hosie of the Chicago Teachers' College, Dr. Salmon, secretary of the national committee on mental hygiene, Prof. W. D. Frost of the University of Wisconsin, upon whom Harvard University has recently conferred the degree of doctor of public health, and Prof. J. L. Miller of the University of High School, Madison, who will speak on the six-year high school. The city superintendents will participate in a round table discussion of questions suggested at the conference.

The state superintendent's staff, including the inspectors of schools, will hold a conference with State Superintendent Cary on the work of the state department of education Wednesday evening.

In conference with a program agreed upon by the state board of public affairs two weeks ago, there will be held next Saturday a conference of the normal school presidents and some of the normal regents, the board of public affairs. The primary object is a discussion of the plans and methods of the normals in more fully meeting the needs of the public schools in the supplying of high grade teachers.

OSHKOSH WILL TAKE OVER WATER PLANT

City Plans to Take Immediate Possession Probably Some Time Tomorrow.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Madison, Sept. 30.—The city of Oshkosh will probably take charge of the waterworks plant on which the railroad commission fixed a valuation of $525,000, some time tomorrow.
Chairman Roemer informed City Attorney Hollister that it was the commission's intention that the city take immediate possession.

PETIT JURY DRAWN FOR OCTOBER TERM

Court to Open Sessions on Twentieth of Month But Jury Not Returnable Until Twenty-seventh.

Jury Commissioners C. E. F. Hanson of Beloit, Robert More of Bradford, and George M. McKee of Janesville met at the court house this morning to select the petit jury for the October term of the circuit court. Although the court will open its sessions on the twentieth of the month the jury is not returnable until a week later. The list of jurymen is as follows:
Janesville—C. E. Curtis, Charles Cleland, William Murray, C. W. Kemmerer, William Talmann, H. A. Ford, A. B. Jones.
Beloit—J. T. Ackley, J. J. Riordan,
E. J. Flanagan, M. Scripps,
George P. Hayes, A. G. Scheibel, F.
R. Cheyne.
Johnstown—Wayne Wilbur.
Milton Village—J. H. Coon, B. I.
Jeffrey.
Oshkosh—E. Gabriel, William Tolles, Clinton Scheldt, Bradford—Adin Locke, W. V. Henry, Roy Dean.
Center—J. H. Fisher.
Burlington—P. Schuman.
Union—Burr Courter.
Nauvoo—Edward Worthington.
Rock—George Campbell.
Turtle—C. F. Lathers.
Porter—Thomas Ford.
La Prairie—William E. Scinson.
Algerton—Edward Lord, Fred Carrier.
Lima—O. W. Bennett.
Milton—Henry Yale.

CAVALRY IS RUSHED TO MEXICAN BORDER

Two Squadrons With One Machine Gun Platoon and Artillery Sent To Eagle Pass.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 30.—Two squadrons of the third cavalry, one machine gun platoon, of the third cavalry and battery C. of the third field artillery are being rushed in three special trains to Eagle Pass, where a definite reason was given out here at the department headquarters for the movement.

ATTORNEY GENERAL ISSUES CORRECTIVE RULING

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Sept. 30.—Because a district attorney's inquiry referred to the old statute and not the 1913 amendment, the attorney general's department has issued a corrective ruling relative to the closed season for wild game. Under the latest statute, it is held that woodcock, quail or snipe may not be killed from Nov.
30 to the succeeding Sept. 7, and that a closed season for partridge extends from Nov. 30 until the next Oct. 1.

INSURANCE RATE COMMITTEE MEETING IS ANNOUNCED

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Sept. 30.—Insurance
Commissioner H. L. Ekern,

MRS. WORRY. JUST A LITTLE MIX-UP, THAT'S ALL.

SPORT Snap-Shots

"Dublin cops," says Fielding H. Yost, "if it were possible to train them a little in the rules of the game, would make the most unbeatable bunch of pigskin warriors that ever kicked a goal. When in Dublin on my European tour I happened to be present while a few of the Dublin officers of the law were quelling a young riot. Was riding about the town at the time in a shay and when the cops showed up and began to spread the crowd I saw my driver to leave that place speedily. I hope never to see such big brutes again. They weren't fat, either, but they were giants. And they knocked the rest of that crowd around like tin soldiers. If I could get eleven of them together and give them a few ideas about football there would be nothing on earth that could stop them. It would be suicide to try to break up interference made up of those big Irish whales."

There's always a hero in every world's series, who'll be the hero this year? Steve O'Neil, the Cleveland catcher, says that Shawkey is one who will get his name in the headlines. There's pretty sure to be a youngster this year to win the bay leaguer, another Babe Adams or Hugh Bennett, who'll be the champion. "He has all the goods," says O'Neil, "and he's cool. You can't rattle the boy. The big league doesn't scare him. He has just as much repose and presence of mind as any of the vets and maybe more than some of them. And there's every reason to believe that he'll be there with the stuff in the world's series, just as he was when he came forth to help Connie Mack grab the American league rag."

An exceedingly able and valuable article by Christy Mathewson appears in Boy Life, the official periodical of the Boy Scouts, wherein there is lots of good wholesome advice on athletics for young boys. And for that matter there is plenty to be learned from it by a lot of grown-ups. "Too often the average boy—and the average man, too," writes Matty, "plays the game just to win. The big thing is not to win, but to do the very best that's in you and with your whole heart. No matter what the game, play it for all there is in you." He urges continued practice for proficiency in any line of sport and practice not only with the arms and legs, but with the brain. Learn the game, thoroughly, says Matty. Any article written by Christy Mathewson will get the attention of every small boy in the country and wholesome advice of that sort will do a great deal of good.

Apparently Jim Thorpe is not anxious to emulate Lo, the poor Indian of poetic fame. Lo may have been a poor Indian, but if all Jim Thorpe's plans work out he'll be far from poor. In fact he will have taken quite a few steps toward cornering the money market. Every chance to make a dollar is eagerly seized by Jim and his latest hunch is a loo-loo. He's going to sell a moving picture concern the privilege of making a reel or two of him when he marries a little, Cherokee maid at Carlisle next month.

M'GOORTY WINS OVER KLAUS AT MILWAUKEE

Pride of Oshkosh Has Pittsburgh Pug Easily Beaten in Ten Rounds at Milwaukee.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Milwaukee Sept. 30.—After refusing to claim his opponent's forfeit for being two and a half pounds over weight, giving him a decided advantage, Eddie McGoorty, the pride of Oshkosh, shaded F. Klaus in a sensational ten round mill here Monday night. Both of the fighters are leading candidates for the middleweight title and the victory of the Oshkosh boy allows him to make the best claims over the present field for the championship.

McGoorty had no easy time downing his sturdy opponent and had to exert all his cleverness and fight at all stages of the game with the generalship that has brought him to the front in the fighting game. Several times Klaus backed him up against the ropes but skillful footwork saved the Oshkosh boy from a landing.

Klaus ruled the favorite at the ringside and was in perfect condition and made the Wisconsin boy fight all the way. At the infighting game the Pittsburgh German showed McGoorty up, but the clean break rules kept him from using his deadly punches in the body work. At a long range Klaus was powerless before the swings and jabs of McGoorty, and when the end of the tenth round was over plainly showed effects of a hard beating.

The Wisconsin boy's best punch was a short jab, which he kept hooking Klaus through the ten rounds and backing this punch with a solid right swing. Fans present at the ringside had little doubt who was the better man of the two.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

American League.
Clubs—	W.	L.	Pct.
Philadelphia	95	53	.612
Washington	83	63	.577
Cleveland	83	63	.577
Boston	78	68	.524
Chicago	77	72	.517
Detroit	64	85	.450
New York	55	91	.377
St. Louis	56	94	.373
National League.
Clubs—	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	97	48	.669
Philadelphia	85	58	.595
Chicago	88	63	.570
Pittsburgh	78	69	.531
Boston	65	82	.446
Brooklyn	64	81	.441
Cincinnati	64	87	.421
St. Louis	49	99	.331
American Association.
Clubs—	W.	L.	Pct.
Albuquerque	100	70	.588
Minneapolis	97	70	.588
Louisville	94	72	.567
Columbus	93	74	.559
St. Paul	77	80	.493
Toledo	69	88	.443
Kansas City	68	98	.408
Indianapolis	68	99	.408

RESULTS YESTERDAY.

American League.
New York, 3-5; Boston, 1-1.
Washington, 1; Philadelphia, 0.
(No other games scheduled.)

National League.
New York, 5-1; Boston, 3-8.
Brooklyn, 3-4; Philadelphia, 1-1;
(second game called in fourteenth, darkness.)
Cincinnati-Pittsburgh (postponed).

GAMES WEDNESDAY.

American League.
Cleveland at Detroit.
Philadelphia at Washington.
National League.
No games.

See?
There are lots of good points about many a man we wouldn't suspect if he didn't tell us about them.—
New York Times.

The Theatre

VOTES FOR WOMEN.

Edison Talking Pictures at the Myers Theatre 2 days beginning Tuesday Sept. 30 and Wednesday, Oct. 1, matinees daily at 2:15 evening at 8:15.

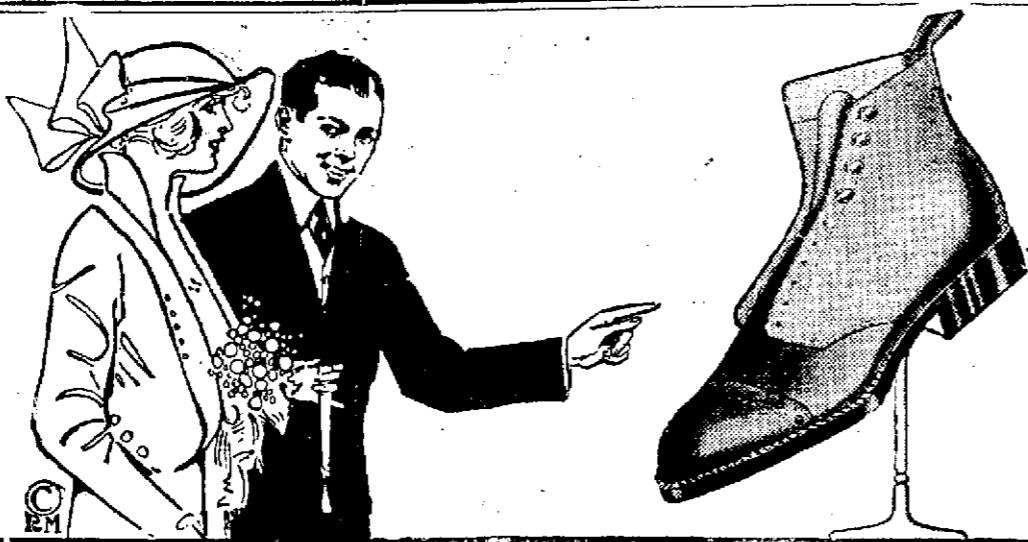

No doubt many who will attend the performances of Thomas A. Edison's Talking Pictures at the Myers Theatre to hear the Suffragettes argue the question of "Votes for Women" will anticipate having a good laugh. They will, however, hear the strongest and most sensible talk on the subject ever placed before the public. This record gives a graphic idea of what women are demanding and men will find it hard to find an argument against these just demands. A few of the women prominent in this movement who appear in the Edison picture are Mrs. James Lees, Laidlaw, Miss Harriet May Mills, Miss Eleanor Byrne, Colonel Ida M. Craft, Mrs. Cyrus W. Field and Mrs. Mary Ware Bennett.

Mr. Edison has perfected his Kinetophone to such a degree that records of many prominent statesmen have been ordered by the New York Historical Society as historic references for future generations. A picture of Mayor Gaynor and his Cabinet officers was one of the first to be made, and this record is a part of the program which will be shown here.

EDISON TALKING PICTURES—"SIX CYLINDER ELOPEMENT."

Here Is One of the New Golden Eagle Models
That a Good Many Men
... Like ...

It's a little different, has Flat English last with broad flange heel, its a very dressy, snappy style that young men especially will appreciate. We have it in Gun Metal or Tan Calf.

$4.00 and $5.00

Look at our other shoes at $3.50 up to $5.50
Some want a good shoe for $3.00
We have them in the same styles as the higher priced shoes.

The Golden Eagle

EXPLANATORY NOTES.
Observations taken at 8 a. m., 75th meridian, 4th time. Air pressure reduced to sea level. Isobars (continuous lines) pass through points of equal air pressure. Isotherms (dotted lines) pass through points of equal temperature; drawn only for zero, freezing, 50°, and 100°. Clear; partly cloudy; cloudy; rain; snow; report missing. Arrows fly with the wind. First figures, lowest temperature past 12 hours; second, precipitation of .01 inch or more for past 24 hours; third, maximum wind velocity.

A trough of low barometer extends across the United States from Manitoba to the Middle Atlantic states. Throughout the broad region thus covered, the weather is unsettled and showers.

High barometer prevails both in the St. Lawrence valley and in the Columbia Basin. In those regions the weather is fair and cool.

The barometer is low in the arid Southwest, but the weather is there generally fair.

Fog prevails today at several stations to the south of Lake Superior and to west of Lake Michigan, and at Memphis, Tenn. Thunderstorms occurred at Dubuque and Des Moines last night.

Expensive Lawmaking Body.
France has the most expensive parliament. It costs $1,500,000 a year.

AUCTION SALE of ROCK COUNTY FARM

The 160 acre farm, known as the Grant Austin place, located two miles south of Milton, six miles from Janesville, on the main road between Janesville and Milton, will be sold at auction

Saturday, Oct. 11th, at 2 P. M., at the Farm.

Farm is well equipped with buildings—8 room house, two large stock barns, hog house, tobacco shed, milk house, corn crib, etc.

Soil is good as any in Rock county; location is ideal.

I am back from California to dispose of this property and propose to let it go quickly so that I may return west at once.

Interested parties desiring to look the farm over before the sale can do so by calling me by phone, 689 Rock county, 1659 Wisconsin, at the George Charlton residence, 121 South High street, Janesville, Wisconsin.

Terms—One-third Cash, Balance Easy Terms.

GRANT C. AUSTIN, Owner.

WM. T. DOOLEY, Auctioneer.

The Janesville Gazette

New Bldg. 200-204 E. Milwaukee St.

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESVILLE, WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS.

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATURDAY EVENING.

WEATHER FORECAST
Janesville: Unsettled with showers tonight or Wednesday.

WAITING ROOM AT GAZETTE OFFICE

For the convenience of the public the waiting room for the street cars, seats are provided and you are welcome to make use of the office as you please.

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION.

It is a little old saying that "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," and the truthfulness of the statement is so thoroughly recognized today that every effort is exhausted to prevent disaster. The great medical colleges are now provided with a chair of preventive medicine, and graduates are instructed in the art of preventing disease.

The slogan of the railroad world today is "safety," and stringent laws have been enacted in many states for the protection of employees in the realm of industry. The losses by fire in this country are far in excess of the same class of losses in the old world because of carelessness, and insurance companies are constantly attempting to solve the problem of prevention.

The mill owners of New England decided some years ago to take up the question of insurance for mutual protection and they were so successful that the story of accomplishment, which appears in the "World's Work," is worth reading, because it proves the value of prevention, as an asset.

The "Factory Mutuals" are merely associations of mill owners who insure one another. They are not run for profit. They are only to insure the mills and factories of their members but, in doing that they have transformed buildings that at one time were considered the worst fire risks into the safest kind of buildings in America, so far as fire is concerned. They have proved again the old adage that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

There are nineteen Mutuals in all, but for convenience they have formed the Associated Fire Insurance Companies, with headquarters in Boston. They make no attempt to secure business, and any mill owner is eligible for membership if he complies with their strict rules of fire prevention. They charge approximately the same premiums that other insurance companies do. But after they have paid the cost of doing business of inspection, and the fire loss, they return what is left to their members in proportion to the premiums paid. This rebate now amounts to more than 90 per cent of the premium.

"When the Mutuals were formed, the insurance rate on factories was a dollar a hundred." The mill owner with a $100,000 property had to pay $1,000 a year for fire insurance. By taking a few simple precautions the Mutuals were able at once to reduce the rate to 50 cents a hundred, and now that they have made a science of fire prevention, they have a rate of only four and one-half cents. That means that the insurance on a $100,000 building is $45 a year. The insurer's premium on its face is far more than this, but the rebate brings the net payment down to this insignificant sum.

"Of course, the reason for this is that the mills insured, and therefore inspected by the Factory Mutuals very seldom have fires. While almost all other kinds of buildings are burning up faster than ever before, the mills and foundries insured in the Factory Mutuals are having only one fire where they formerly had from fifteen to thirty."

"The records of the transition period when automatic sprinklers were being installed in mills furnish a comparison which proves their value. In the ten years between 1877 and 1887, mills without sprinklers insured in one company had 758 fires with a loss of $5,707,000, or $7,500 to the fire. In the same period there were 206 fires in mills outfitted with automatic sprinklers with a total loss of $22,460, or $1,080 to the fire. Even at that early date the automatic sprinkler reduced the fire loss to one-seventh."

"It is on account of their tireless inspections that the Factory Mutuals have been so successful. There were nineteen of them in 1880, insuring two hundred million dollars' worth of property commonly considered extra hazardous. There are still nineteen and they are now insuring considerably more than two billion dollars' worth of the same kind of property. They are all much stronger than they ever were and their business has increased more than tenfold."

Compare this with other fire insurance concerns. Of the 105 fire insurance stock companies organized in New York and doing business in the year 1871, there are only twenty left. Of the seventy-one that have since been organized, only twenty-four are still living. This leaves 44 of a total of 170—exactly one-fourth."

MUST PAY THE PRICE.

According to the Chicago Inter Ocean, the address of former President Roosevelt indicates that there is no thought of compromise between the elements of the republican party and the ultra radicals who have followed the lead of the strenuous Colonel. The Inter Ocean says: "If the spirit shown by Theodore Roosevelt and his radical followers in their New York state convention last week is to be the spirit of the voters for Mr. Roosevelt next fall throughout the nation there might as well be an end of any thought of compromise or reunion between these persons and the republican party. No thinking republican—no loyal citizen—can join Mr. Roosevelt in his plunge into the abyss of judicial anarchy."

"Mr. Roosevelt emitted a flood of whirling words whose central thought was a demand for a 'recall of the courts from legalism to humanism.' What Mr. Roosevelt meant, put in plain English, is that judges should declare the law to be not what it is but what the judge thinks it ought to be from the viewpoint of his personal sympathies, personal prejudices, or mere whims in that particular case."

"Furthermore, Mr. Roosevelt demanded that the judge should be removable from the bench whenever his view of the law does not accord with the momentary prejudices, sympathies, passions or whims of a majority of the population of the community which had put him on the bench."

"Mr. Roosevelt's demands were put in more ornate words. They were decked with all the fashionable speech flowers of honest aspiration for more social justice and of the current 'sociological' cant."

"But their meaning is that the courts should be governed by no general rules, and should decide according to the 'conscience,' or caprice, of the judge at the moment, controlled only by respect for the interests or passions of the mob in the street under the court-room windows."

"With such a theory of government—the theory that the judge should make or bend the laws to suit the exigencies of popular agitation and of personal popularity—the theory which regards the 'justice' dispensed by a Turkish Cadi as ideal—the republican party can have no relations save those of unbending opposition—save those of a battle to the death."

The republican party came into effective life to save the national government from armed assault by misguided citizens who sought its overthrow because they could no longer control its decisions. If the republican party is to die it cannot die better than in battle to the end for government of laws and not of men only—for courts of justice that respect no persons in judgment but only the laws as the sovereign people have seen fit to make them."

"To confuse the functions of the lawmaker and the law interpreter is to be forced to choose between anarchy and despotism. The choice, of course, would be despotism, since the first interest of all is public order. Somehow secured. But the trouble with despotism is that the best despot cannot always be wholly wise nor always wholly benevolent. As we must get along somehow with imperfect human instruments we must have in government separations of powers and which such minds as that of Theodore Roosevelt are so impatient."

The republican party will not die. The necessary refusal of the Republican party to pay the price demanded by such recruits as the voters who persist in following Theodore Roosevelt and in backing his demands with respect to the courts may keep it in the minority for some time."

The Inter Ocean doubts if there are enough American voters so lost to all considerations of patriotism and to all requirements of safety for personal freedom and property rights to make any particular difference in the result of the next national contest."

"But if there are enough to defeat the Republican party again, it can better afford, for its own sake, and the country's, to be defeated than to pay the hire demanded by these insensate radicals."

"As for the Inter Ocean, it would prefer Woodrow Wilson and the Democratic party indefinitely to paying the price of such betrayal of the republic as seems to be necessary to conciliate Theodore Roosevelt's blind followers."

One can't help wondering whether it would have taken as much time for the express companies to put an increase of rates into effect as they ask for to bring about the reduction demanded by the interstate commerce commission."

The president of the waterworks board of Hartford, Conn., has resigned because he considers his salary too large. Which may prompt Harry Thaw to inquire: "Who's looney now?"

A Missouri judge approves the silk skirt on the ground that the wonderful human machine is nothing to be ashamed of. Evidently the judge has taken advantage of his opportunities."

Perhaps it is true also that foreign ministers in European governments couldn't get an engagement with a company of bellringers and Swiss veldys if they tried."

Being a special envoy to Mexico involves great hardship. Probably the only way John Lind can put in his time is to visit all the picture shows in Vera Cruz.

English suffragists have taken to burning school houses. Surely that ought finally to prove they are entitled to the ballot.

Tammany is not pleased with Secretary Bryan, but that doesn't necessarily put him in the same class with Governor Sulzer.

As she failed to send a present, it looks as though Gaby Deslys didn't receive an invitation to ex-King Manuel's wedding.

The champagne yield is poor this year. Now Harry Thaw may become reconciled to return to Matewan.

STATE PRESS.

Lateness Significant.
Funny, isn't it, that Senator La Follette never discovered the evils of government by caucus as practiced by the democrats until now.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Will it Come Off.
We admire the complaisant grin with which each morning Tom Morris greets the matutinal announcement that another statesman has been 'mentioned' for the senate.—La Crosse Tribune.

A Reversion.
At any rate, there is a long distance between government by party caucuses and government by initiative and referendum. President Wilson seems to be relaxing into his old ideas.—Wausau Record-Herald.

Sound Philosophy.
The secretary of agriculture of Ohio is some philosopher. He tells the farmer: "We can't keep the boys on the farm unless we keep the girls there. Modern education must not take away the cornucopia of motherhood. The present price of woman's hours and poor cooking is sending more men to hides than all the saloons." And there were some deluded folks, who thought it was silk skirts.—Eau Claire Leader.

Baseless Optimism.
He who expects half birds to stop the wasteful extravagance prevailing in state government is a poor observer of current, and a bad student of past history. The spendthrift never stops until he reaches the bankruptcy court.—Madisonian.

Will Have Its Bearing.
It would be idle for close supporters of Senator La Follette to deny that his vote for the democratic tariff has introduced new factors in the coming senatorial election. Not to be forgotten in connection is that chosen as one of the committee on conference, which evidently would precede him from supporting republicanism in the conference.—Racine Journal News.

Playground Accidents.
The fact that three children were hurt on playgrounds in Milwaukee will be seized upon by some as an argument against public playgrounds. Such arguments, however, do not take into consideration the fact that it is the very unusualness of the thing that gives the accident greatest news value. If all the cases of fractured arms and broken toes received by playing on the streets were recorded and used as an argument in favor of proper places for play, the opposition feature would be swamped.—Fond du Lac Reporter.

STUPID MOMENT

The Busy Neighbor.
Have you ever noticed what a busy and capable man your neighbor is? Perhaps you have never noticed it yourself, but if you haven't, your wife has probably told you about it, which is the same. When you go home to meals you hear about him three times a day, something like this:

"Mr. Jones is such a capable man. Do you know, he built his own stormhouse this year and put in his own storm windows? Why don't you ever do anything like that?"

Mr. Jones was out and had his snow shovel off at 5 o'clock this morning.

"Mr. Jones is making some repairs on his furnace. He must save a lot of money that way."

Mr. Jones raised his own chickens and eggs they could eat. He was going to do the same this year.

Mr. Jones fixed three leaks in their cellar pipes last evening all by himself, and he repaired Mrs. Jones' carpet sweeper this morning before breakfast.

"Mr. Jones is going to build his own garage in the spring. He drew the plans himself and it is going to be perfectly lovely. I wish you could find time to do things like that."

When you get tired of hearing about the money-saving activities of Mr. Jones, you move into a new neighborhood and get next door to Mr. Smith, who is about three times as capable as Mr. Jones was. There is apparently no place in this world where a lazy man like yourself can find peace.

The Diary of a Bonthead.
The next time they get up an amateur performance of "Pinafore" in our village for the benefit of charity it will be managed by somebody else, not by your uncle Dudley. We have just closed one such performance and I would rather manage a grand opera troupe for one season than a home talent aggregation for one night.

There was more artistic temperament wrapped up in our company than was possessed by all of the stars ever managed by Grauman, Hammerstein and Gatti-Cazza combined.

Little Buttercup and Josephine, two of our society leaders, scrapped over the star dressing room at the village opy house until I was obliged to decide the question, and when I had decided it, the question was satisfactory to nobody, not even to myself. Dick Deadeye and Ralph Rackstraw besieged me for weeks, each trying to get his name at the top of the bills and on the night of the performance I was not sure that more than one-third of my stars would appear. The dress rehearsal had unrepentant feeling that will split the social fabric of our village for years to come.

But the stars didn't forget to come. The public, however, did. When the curtain went up, the house looked like the show room of a chair factory. The expenditures exceeded the receipts by $235.85 and as I was the manager, the bills came to me.

Moral: Charity begins at home.

More Headlines We Will Never See.
Man Has Too Much Hard Coal; Is Giving It Away to Neighbors.

Newspaper Reporter Passes Away, Leaving Fortune of Million Dollars.

Apartment Janitor Loved by Tenants On Account of His Politeness.

Man Admits Wife Can Make Shortcake As Good as That Made by His Mother.

Politician Decline Complimentary Tickets on a Street Car Line.

Well Known Husband Urges Wife To Buy an Expensive Spring Bonnet.

Prominent Automobileist Refuses To Talk About His New Machine.

Signs of the Times.
Milliners are now sending hats by parcel post, but they should be sent by telegraph, so that they will still be in style when they reach their destination.

Kansas man blown up by a peanut roaster, which seems to be the height of something or other if you can only figure it out.

Harry Thaw and his troubles are gradually getting back to Page Sixteen, next to pure advertising matter.

How's This?
We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him.

NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials and references free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

If Bryan can make $400 a night lecturing, what difference does it make what becomes of his days?

The average woman nowadays has so little to wear that she can dress quicker than a fireman.

It is proposed that each Chicago bride be presented with a cook book along with her marriage license. Well, a cook book is always handy to prop up a three-legged lounge.

Washington man sent to jail for stealing his wife's false teeth. The poor man probably thought that owing to the high cost of living, she would not need them.

Kaiser Wilhelm now drinks nothing but lemonade, and the hardest part of it is that lemons are very scarce in Germany.

Some people will not be satisfied until they can send automobiles and cattle by parcel post.

The University of Wisconsin has put the ban on naughty dances, which shows for one thing that the University of Wisconsin has a versatile press agent.

Pat Crowe, the outlaw, has taken to writing poetry. It is just that sort of business that can always be expected of a man of Crowe's stamp.

A Chicago husband drank car-bolic acid that his wife refused to take. There is nothing like keeping it in the family.

Radium now costs $2,400,000 an ounce and the price is going up. Those desiring to lay in a winter supply are warned to buy early.

New York actor was robbed of $335 and the strongest part of the thing is that it was real money.

Words of Cheer.
"I sometimes wonder if life is worth living," mused the pessimist. "It is," replied the optimist. "It is worth living much better than most of us live it."—Lippincott's.

Strawberry Not European.
A great many people are under the impression that the strawberry is of European origin. As a matter of fact, it is derived from the Chilean berry, which is native to the Pacific coast.

Little Uncertain.
Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Wishes of Cheer.
"I sometimes wonder if life is worth living," mused the pessimist. "It is," replied the optimist. "It is worth living much better than most of us live it."—Lippincott's.

Strawberry Not European.
A great many people are under the impression that the strawberry is of European origin. As a matter of fact, it is derived from the Chilean berry, which is native to the Pacific coast.

Little Uncertain.
Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well," replied the drunk, "if I can't get along any better than I do now, I shan't go anywhere."

Parson Cunningham came across a tipsy fellow leaning up against a fence one evening, and, stopping, asked him where he expected to go when he died. "Well,"

Thoroughly UP-TO-DATE in the Latest PAINLESS Way of Doing DENTISTRY

Don't be tortured. Let me show you how Painlessly your work can be done.

DR. F. T. RICHARDS

PAINLESS DENTIST
Office Over Hall & Sayles

AN INCOME FOR LIFE

And a large measure of prosperity are possible through the right sort of start. A Savings Account is the modern way of beginning to travel the right path and a Few Dollars at a time eventually amount to hundreds and then to thousands. The best way to learn the full value of money is to open a Savings Account with us and add to it little by little.

The First National Bank
Established 1855.

Window Glass. Patty. Points.

Everything to make the Windows ready for Winter.

BLOEDEL & RICE
The Main Street Painters.
35 So. Main Street.

F. J. BLAIR,
General Insurance and Loans.
424 Hayes Building

Men having fled applications or looking for work with the Rock Co. Sugar Co., should report not later than Wednesday morning, Oct. 1.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR RENT—Steam heated flat, S. D. Grubb, 45-9-30-1st.
WANTED—A maid for house work. Good wages. Mrs. Alexander E. Matheson, 624 St. Lawrence Avenue, 4-9-30-1st.

FOR RENT—New 5-room house 437 N. Pine St., Wis. Tel. Number 1436, 11-9-30-1st.
WANTED—At once, messenger boy over 14 years of age with bicycle. Western Union Telegraph Co., 5-9-30-1st.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Demonstration of Champion Gas, Coal and Wood range at Lowell's store. All this week.
The W. C. T. U. will meet Wednesday at 2:00 p. m. in the West Side I. O. O. F. hall. Reports from the county convention will be given. Also readings from the life of Frances Willard. Everybody invited to attend.

Don't miss the demonstration of the Champion Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store all this week.
Members of the Philathea class of the Baptist Sunday school enjoyed their monthly banquet at the church parlors last evening.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Track Under Water: The track between Monroe and Mineral Point was under water for some time last night and this morning because of the extremely heavy rains which visited western points early last evening, and this morning.
Council Meeting: The regular meeting of the city council was scheduled for this afternoon at the city hall. Matters of no great importance were slated for consideration.

Sole Survivors, Jack Moore and Alex Johnson, whom it is expected will be taken to the state prison at Waupun tomorrow to begin their sentences, and James Clark, who is to have his hearing in the municipal court on October 4, and Chapman, who is detained by the United States immigration authorities pending their decision on his right to remain in the country, are at the present time the sole prisoners in the county jail.

Marriage License: Marriage licenses have been granted by County Clerk Howard Lee to Forest L. Durrer and Cleve M. Gillman of Evansville; Francisco Pantoleo and Maria Gambina of Beloit.

Lessening the Shock. A Cleveland surgeon is said to have found a way to rob surgical operations of the shock. A good way would be to break it gently to the patient that the regular fee would be cut in half.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

LIGHTNING STRIKES AT COOK RESIDENCE; FIRE IN MAGNOLIA

Violent Electrical Storm This Morning Marks Passing of Month of September.

The passing of the month of September was marked by a violent electrical storm which visited this city between ten and eleven o'clock this morning. Lightning flashes were especially sharp for this time of the year.

About ten-thirty o'clock the residence of Mrs. F. C. Cook, 509 Court street, was struck by lightning, but owing to the wet condition of the shingles there was no fire.

Mrs. Cook and her sister, Miss Hattie Allen, were alone in the house at the time the flash struck and Mrs. Cook was stunned by the shock.

The lightning struck the chimney on the corner of which was an iron pipe and the bricks all loosened. From the bricks the current jumped down to the roof and tore two large holes into the attic, splintering the shingles over the interior of the room. No serious damage was done and Mrs. Cook quickly recovered from her shock and fright.

A heavy rainfall continued for nearly thirty minutes, flooding the streets and taking the storm sewers.

Fire in Magnolia. Cairnville Center, Sept. 30.—During the storm this morning lightning struck the large barn on what is known as the Ryan farm, owned by Patrick Ryan, Jr. and rented by Chris Cortice. The building, which is about seven years old, was burned to the ground together with its contents, a large amount of hay, human and animal manure and a quantity of rye. The poultry house and granary which stood near were also burned and the tobacco shed was partially destroyed.

A distress call was sent out on the telephone and neighbors at once hurried to give assistance in fighting the fire. Their work prevented the total loss of the tobacco shed.

Mr. Ryan lost on the building will be about $1,800, only partially covered by insurance while Mr. Cortice carried but little protection on his grain and fodder.

WERE WEDDED EARLY ON MONDAY MORNING

Miss Agnes Callahan Becomes Bride of William J. Murphy at Dawn Yesterday.

Miss Agnes Callahan, daughter of Mrs. J. B. Callahan, who resides at 914 School street, and William J. Murphy, both of this city, were united in marriage Monday morning at six o'clock at the St. Patrick's church by the Rev. Dean Reilly. The ceremony was a private one, and was followed by a wedding breakfast at the bride's home. The attendants were Miss Mae Callahan, a sister of the bride, and Edward Delaney. Mr. Murphy is one of the proprietors of the Delaney and Murphy cigar and confectionary store on West Milwaukee street, and is well known in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy left for Chicago and other Illinois points where they will visit for about two weeks. They will be at the home of the bride's parents upon their return where they will make their home.

The regular October meeting of the Janesville Civic League has been postponed to Monday evening, October 12th, at 8 o'clock.

HAS SECURED WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

Vincent Carter Has Secured Possession of Son Who Was Held in Custody of Poormaster Anderson.

Vincent Carter secured a writ of habeas corpus before Circuit Court Commissioner E. P. Carpenter Monday giving him the possession of his son who has been held in the custody of Poormaster Asa Anderson pending an action in which the county authorities seek to secure the removal of the child from his father. The case which was called in municipal court late yesterday afternoon was adjourned for a week. Mr. and Mrs. B. Buckworth of Danville, Ill., father and mother of Vincent, arrived in Janesville today. Carter, their son in the fight to secure the retention of their grandchild in their sons hands.

Free Aluminum Cooking Utensils with every Champion Interchangeable Range bought at our store this week. Talk to Lowell.

WILL SELECT A SITE FOR BADGER BUILDING

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Madison, Wis., Sept. 30.—Governor McGovern and the members of the state committee will leave for San Francisco to select a site for the Badger building on Oct. 8. If tentative plans are followed, this plan hinges on the ability of Dr. A. J. Provost of Oshkosh, a member of the committee, to leave on that date. The committee has been told that the building will be taken has not been determined, but Secretary D. E. Bove is now arranging this detail.

G. F. DAVIS OPENS NEW TAILOR SHOP

Well Known Tailor of City Goes Into Business for Himself.

G. F. Davis who for six years was managing tailor of the Ziegler Clothing store has opened a tailoring establishment of his own in the West Side Carle Block, cor. Franklin and West Milwaukee. Mr. Davis has a high reputation as a tailor and there are many who know of his work, who will be glad to learn that he is now able to give them high grade tailoring, backed by his own name and guarantee.

All work will be done in his own shop by himself and skilled workmen. The vital thing in merchant tailoring is to produce a perfect, lasting fit. This, Mr. Davis, insures by having all cutting and marking done under his care and direction.
Dry cleaning, pressing, and repairing will be given prompt attention. Of late Mr. Davis has been conducting a dry cleaning establishment on Pearl street which will be continued in conjunction with his present shop. Mr. Davis extends an invitation to his friends and the public at large to call. He has the R. C. phone, No. 453 Red.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Maurice Morrissey of Delavan, publisher of the Republican of that city, was here on business Monday.

Rev. C. J. Roberts pastor of the United Brethren church, left today for Brocton, N. Y., to attend a conference. He will return Wednesday.

Mrs. James Lamb returned last evening from a week's visit with friends at Footville and Evansville.

Miss Edna Harvey of this city is very seriously ill in Chicago.

Ivy and Rollo Dobson have moved into Mr. Hall's place at 329 South Main street.

Miss Clara Runk is spending the coming two weeks with friends in Milwaukee.

Floyd Kilmer and Robert Cluthero were Milton visitors last evening.

J. F. Fisher transacted business in Monroe today.

Dr. F. W. Van Kirk was a business visitor in Milwaukee today.

Willis Switzerland has returned to Annapolis, Maryland, where he will resume studies at the U. S. Naval School, this being his second year in this eastern government institution.

A. C. Gaarder of Orfordville, was a visitor in the city Monday.

H. C. Buell was in Madison today.

W. H. Glover, traveling passenger agent for the Missouri Pacific, and E. O. Niles, traveling passenger agent for the Pere Marquette, called upon local friends.

E. J. Murphy of Hanley Brothers, returned from a five weeks' trip through Michigan points.

Mrs. A. R. Talmadge is visiting friends for the week in Chicago.

Judge C. M. Jefferson was in the city yesterday.

Doctor B. F. Warren left last evening for a business trip in Illinois.

E. E. Spalding has gone to Iowa for a week on business.

William Sherman of the town of La Prairie has purchased the home of William Hayes in the third ward.

Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Imley were over Sunday visitors at Lake Kegonsa.

Miss Emma Richardson is spending several days in Milwaukee. She went to attend the wedding of Mrs. Hamilton Richardson's sister.

Today closed the season at the Country club. The golf trophies were presented to the winners, a bridge game was planned for the afternoon, a dinner at six-thirty and a dance in the evening.

Dr. Imley is in Whitewater today on a business trip.

Mrs. Thomas Jeff's has given out out invitations for a dinner Saturday at her home on South Jackson street, to be held on Friday evening, October 3rd.

Miss Mable Shumway of Court street will leave for a visit with her sister in Eau Claire, the last of the week.

Mrs. M. McDermott, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. G. K. Glass for the past five weeks, has returned to her home in Winthrop, Maine.

Mrs. Louise Green and daughter, Pearl of Beloit, have been the guests of Mrs. J. M. Ross of South Division street for a few days.

Mrs. Oscar Yahn has been entertaining Miss Freda Dawlat of Oshkosh for the past week. Miss Dawlat returned home on Saturday.

Mrs. Josephine Baird is home from a two months' automobile trip through the eastern country.

The Rev. David Deaton of this city delivered one of his characteristically stirring addresses on Saturday evening at Milton, at the celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Milton Congregational church.

Miss Ella Drummond is spending the week with friends in Evansville.

Nelson Francis is home from St. John's Academy at Delafield, Wis., for a few days.

Glen McCarthy of this city, who has held a position in the bureau of municipal research at the city hall in Milwaukee, will leave there on October 3rd, to resume his studies at the university at Madison, Wisconsin.

Leo Brownell was a Beloit caller on business on Monday.

Dr. F. C. Binnewies of this city spent the first of the week in Milton.

The Wee Wee band that was held last week was a very profitable meeting. The children's barrels yielded $20.83. There were eighty-five folks and thirty mothers and teachers present. It was held in the parlors of the Congregational church.

Mrs. J. P. Baker will entertain the two table club on Thursday afternoon at her home on North High street.

Mrs. M. M. Farley of South Division street will entertain the Century Heart club at her home on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 1st.

Richard Valentini has returned from northern Wisconsin, where he has been for the most of the summer, at his summer hunting camp.

Mrs. Fred Green of Milton was a Janesville shopper this week.

Mrs. Warren Wheelock and daughter, Nancy, will leave for a visit in Maine today with her parents. Mr. Wheelock will accompany them to Chicago.

Mrs. Charles Pierce is spending the day in Chicago.

Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Nuzum and two sons were visitors in Broadhead last of the week.

Mrs. M. B. Woodstock returned last evening from Chicago.

The condition of John H. McVicar is reported slightly improved following a serious illness.

District Attorney Stanley Dunwiddie was confined to his home today on account of illness.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Range during this week $7.90 worth of Aluminum utensils.

Penny Gone! No Warts.

Maurice, age six, was weeping bitterly and mother inquired as to the cause of the deluge. "I bought two warts from Vincent for a penny," he wailed, "and Vincent hasn't given me the warts and won't give my penny back."

FAILS TO PAY ALIMONY FOR HIS CHILD'S SUPPORT

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Madison, Wis., Sept. 30.—Whitfall failed to pay the divorced wife money for a dependent child, awarded to the mother, constitutes a criminal offense under the laws of Iowa, according to an opinion submitted to Governor McGovern by Attorney General Owen. Under this opinion the governor has signed extradition papers for the return of John Starck, a Madison plumber, to Des Moines to face a charge of failing to pay alimony for his child.

Other words, the award of minor children to the wife, and an order for support money, do not cancel the husband's obligations as a parent.

RECEPTION IN HONOR OF MISS VERA NOLAN

More Than Two Hundred Guests Present at Party to Introduce Young Lady to Society.

Mrs. Thomas S. Nolan this afternoon between the hours of two and six gave a reception at her home, 129 South Third Street, to introduce her daughter, Miss Vera Nolan, an autumn debutante. Four hundred invitations were issued and despite the inclement weather more than half that number attended.

Autumn leaves, flowers, fruits, and colors were used in the decoration of the reception room, library, and dining room, producing a seasonable and charming color harmony. The color scheme of the dining room was yellow and white, effected by the skillful placing of bouquets of golden rod, marigolds and Shasta daisies. The table center piece was of yellow roses and autumn fern, and the chandelier was draped with smilax. Pink, white, and royal purple asters, asparagus fern, and sunnyside leaves were employed in the adornment of the reception room and salvia, sunnyside, water-sweet, and thornapple in the library.

Mrs. Sanford Severhill and Mrs. P. H. Korst served ices assisted by Mrs. T. O. Howe and Mrs. Archie Reid.

Misses Linda Simpson, Norma Ryan, Sylvia Cannon, Wilma Severhill and Dorothy Korst waited upon the guests. Little Margaret Cullen attended at the door and Mrs. Louise Bowman, pianist, rendered "The Hunch of Ostrava" furnished music throughout the afternoon.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

SPORTSMEN ANXIOUS AS TO THE NEW LAW

Conflict Between Federal and State Game Laws Which Go Into Effect October 1.

Sportsmen are anxious as to the outcome of the conflict between the federal and state game laws. The federal laws become effective tomorrow, Oct. 1. Under the federal law there can be no hunting of game between sunset and sunrise while under the state law hunters enjoy the privilege of shooting for a half hour after sunset and an hour before sunrise.

The state game warden will put up to State Game Warden Shultz for a decision and meanwhile the sportsmen will follow the state law, it is said. In fact, some of the game wardens state that their instructions are to enforce the state laws and prosecute under them except in cases where the federal law will give them a surer conviction.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser of a Champion Interchangeable Gas, Coal and Wood Range at the Lowell Store.

Free, to every purchaser

MARKET FOR CATTLE IS SLOW AND WEAK

Receipts Fall from 23,000 to 7,000—
Hogs Steady and Shade Above Yesterday's Average.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Chicago, Sept. 30.—Cattle were weak and slow at the opening of the livestock market this morning, receipts having dropped from 23,000 to 7,000 since yesterday morning. Receipts of hogs also suffered a decline but the demand was steady and prices a shade above yesterday's average. Sheep were steady and strong. Quotations were:

Cattle—Receipts 7,000; market slow and weak; best 7.30@9.50; Texas steers 7.05@8.00; western steers 6.00@8.35; stockers and feeders 5.40@8.00; cows and heifers 3.55@8.75; calves 7.75@11.25.

Hogs—Receipts 19,000; market steady; shade above yesterday's average; light 8.45@9.05; mixed 8.20@9.00; heavy 8.05@9.00; rough 5.05@8.25; pigs 4.00@7.75; bulk of sales 8.25@8.75.

Sheep—Receipts 35,000; market steady; strong; native 3.70@4.75; western 3.85@4.75; yearlings 4.80@5.75; lambs, native 5.75@7.35; western 5.75@7.35.

Eggs—Unchanged; receipts 6,552 cases.

Potatoes—Lower; receipts 110 cars; Wis.-Mich. 38@65; Minn.-Ohio 35@60.

Poultry—Live: Lower; fowls 13 1/2; spring 14.

Wheat—Sept. Opening 85 1/2; high 85 3/4; low 85; closing 85 1/4; Dec. Opening 87 1/2; high 88; low 87; closing 87 1/2.

Corn—Sept. Opening 71 1/4; high 71 3/4; low 71; closing 71 1/4.

Oats—Sept. Opening 41 1/2; high 41 3/4; low 41; closing 41 1/2.

Rye—Sept. Opening 41 1/2; high 41 3/4; low 41; closing 41 1/2.

Barley—Sept. Opening 38 1/2; high 38 3/4; low 38; closing 38 1/2.

JANESVILLE WHOLESALE MARKET.

Janesville, Wis., Sept. 30, 1913.

Straw, Corn, Oats—Straw, 45@50; baled hay, $10@12; loose (small demand); corn 81 1/2@83; oats, 40@42; barley, 38@40.

Poultry—Dressed hens, 15c; dressed young springers, 25c; geese, live, 11c; dressed, 14c. Turkeys, dressed, 20c; live, 14c.

Steers and Cows—4.50@8.50 and 9.00.

Hogs—7.50@8.25 to 9.00.

Feed—(Retail) Oil meal, $1.05@1.70 per 100 lbs.; bran, $1.25@1.30; standard middlings, $1.30; flour middlings, $1.45.

LOCAL MARKETS.

Janesville, Wis., Sept. 30, 1913.

Oysters were received on the market this morning in greater quantities than at any other time of the year and sold at twenty-five cents a pint.

The fish has been a very big demand for them as yet, the housewives preferring to wait until colder weather before enjoying the steaks and fried oysters. Citron for canning and they are selling at ten cents apiece.

Fruit—Oranges, 50c@60c; dozen, bananas, 15c@25c a dozen; lemons, 40c a dozen; watermelons, 20c@25c; cantaloupes, 2 and 3 for 25c; plums, 15c; pears, 30c@40c; $2.35 bushel, Colorado peaches, $1.10 box; Michigan, $2.25 bu.

Butter—Creamery 36c; dairy 31c; eggs 27@28c doz; cheese 32@33c; oleo margarine, 18c@20c lb; pure lard 15c @21c; lard compound, 15c lb.

Nuts—English walnuts, 20c lb; black walnuts, 25c pk; hickory nuts, 6c@6c lb; Brazil nuts, 15c; peanuts, 10c@15c lb; popcorn, 5c@6c lb.

Fish—Superior lake trout, 10c; pike 18c lb.

Oysters, 25c pint.

BUTTER MARKET IS FIRM AT THIRTY-ONE CENTS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Elgin, Ill., Sept. 29.—Butter was quoted firm at 31 cents.

MILLIONAIRES EXHIBITORS AT THE BROCKTON FAIR

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Boston, Mass., Sept. 30.—The annual fair at Brockton, always one of the most notable fairs in New England and particularly famous for the fine horses, cattle, etc., entered by the multi-millionaire farmers and owners of estates in Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island and New York, was opened today with a record-breaking attendance. As usual the horse show in connection with the fair is one of its most interesting and attractive features. More and finer horses than ever before have been entered this year. Among the most notable exhibitors are Thomas W. Lawson, F. Lothrop Ames, Maurice Diamond, H. K. Bloodgood, Alfred Vanderbilt and other owners of fine horses. Members of the exclusive social sets of New York, Boston, Newport and other cities within a radius of several hundred miles have come to Boston and it is expected that they will visit the fair grounds in their automobiles on every one of the four days of the show.

Every Day Talks for Every Day People

By FRANCES JOYCE KENNEDY.

Now that September's haze is hanging over the hillsides, are you making the most of these beautiful days? Do you take your "ones" out for a tramp to some of the really beautiful places that lie near your home, or are you like so many of us foolish mortals that think that an outing means an expenditure of money?

Why not plan for a walk every Saturday afternoon? Take the children out a ways into the country and see who'll enjoy the trip the most? Notice how the leaves are turning, how a clump of schinus bushes seems a living mass of crimson and gold; how every blade and leaf is bent on making the most of their numbered days, resplendent in their riotous coloring—in the robes they are to die in.

Notice how the sun shines in the Fall. Of course you have, it seems a laughing, living sun that keeps insisting, "Come to me, come to me, and view the changing panorama of the days."

If one wants to work in these days they must wear blinders to keep steady at it, for who can shut out the haunting blazes of color that mark the coming of the Fall? sole season that makes so beautiful, so spectacular an exit.

Is there a reader of this paper that isn't within distance of some place to take as a destination, tramp there, let the children race about and, if you feel so inclined, why run about alone, if not just sit back and quietly drink in the natural beauty of your surroundings. Sit back and watch the sun sink low in the golden west, noting the change that just one hour brings in this ever-changing season; the way the sinking sun shines as though it were reluctant to leave such scene behind.

Ever been down to the "Rock" in Monterey? Ever cross out there, scrambling down the rather steep, incline on the other side and sit back and look things over while the "ones" fill sundry bottles and glass jars with colored sand? Is there a man or woman, boy or girl that has at some time in their childish career been bitten by the collecting bug? And then—then goodbye for a period to all things not pertaining to the much cherished hobby.

You can find colored sand at the "Rock" that will excite even you who came reluctantly because you did not want to leave your work. Your work that will always be there, while these Fall days will all too soon be gone. Why not enjoy them? Surely the kind Creator never put such wonderful colors on the canvas of life for us to pass them by with unseeing eyes.

If you should happen to be the possessor of any troubles or worries bring them along. Arriving at the bridge sling them in, in the part where the current runs swiftest, so they will meet the fate they deserve.

Pushing never mends matters. Look on the bright side of the sun slowly sinking in the blaze of crimson glory and tell yourself that "God's in His heaven all's right with the world" and as you are a part of God's great plan, everything is all right for you.

Today's Edgerton News.

Edgerton, Sept. 30.—The Lyceum course which has been produced for Edgerton by the ladies of the Methodist church promises to be one of the best ever given in this city. The first number is to be given on the evening of October 7th. This number is on concert by the famous Round's Specialty company. Three other numbers will be given during the year. Tickets may be bought at the office of D. W. North.

Mrs. Thomas Clarke of Chicago is spending a few days at the home of Mrs. George White.

Paul Cullen of Madison is a business caller in the city for a few days.

Mrs. C. Bently spent yesterday in Stoughton.

Clayton Hubbell and Max Voight were Janesville callers yesterday.

C. L. Cullen, N. E. Nelson and William Barrett left for Montana this morning on a business trip.

Mrs. F. C. Ulrich spent yesterday in Chicago.

F. J. Gordon of Milton Junction was a business caller here yesterday.

Friends here were notified yesterday morning that Peter Horstad of Uffula had committed suicide by shooting himself in the head. No cause is known for the act as he appeared perfectly well the evening before.

During the night he arose, went out near the barn, and committed the deed.

G. M. Hurd, who has been in Chicago for several days on business, has returned home.

Hugh Sweeney has been in Madison for a few days on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred True of Los Angeles, California, are spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopkins.

William Haukey was a business caller in Janesville yesterday.

J. J. Leary is spending the week in Madison in the interest of the Edgerton Clear company.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hurd spent yesterday in Stoughton.

Mrs. James is seriously ill at her home here with appendicitis and rheumatism.

Mrs. N. H. Babcock and Mrs. M. Babcock of Alton are spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Whitford.

Mrs. H. Krause of Fort Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bartlett of Juneau and Mrs. R. Wiedenhof of White-water spent yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fritzsche.

UNCLE WALT

The Poet Philosopher

Copyright, 1909, by George Matthew Adams

BY WALT MASON

The ice man, having earned his wage—which we consider large—is ready to leave the stage, and the coal man charge. Through all the summer months we coughed our coins to dodge the heat; the ice man's snip was large and soft, distributing his sleet, winter rains and

THE COAL MAN groans, while hovers the deadly storm, we'll cough up all our extra bones in effort to keep warm.

The coal man is a cheerful wight, and naught his rapture, mure, he basks on downy beds at night, by day in motor cars, in glided luxury he rolls, he silken raiment wears, while swarthy hirelings back his coals with dirty flights of stairs. He is a crank on honest weight, a Spartan soul is he; and oft he throws in chunks of slate to give variety. When whirly tempests round us shriek, the most of us repine; but that's the coal man's time to speak an optimistic line. The blasts can't snort around too hard to please this cheery soul, while there are wagons in his yard a-bathing up with coal. And so the good old coal man grins his laughter flows in rills; he dumps his coals in our bins and then sends in his bills.

To Save Money.

Economy, rightly understood, requires careful study and consistent action. A knowledge of market prices and money values are necessary for an intelligent solution to the high cost of living. But such knowledge of itself does not suffice. Consistent action is equally, if not more important. The "head and heart" of a family must be one in their efforts. They must work in unison.

Altogether Too Strenuous.

There is a man whose wife makes him get up so often to hunt burglars that he says he is going to let her get a divorce and marry a night watchman.

One Little Sin.

It is astonishing how soon the whole conscience begins to unravel if a single stitch drops; one little sin indulged makes a hole you could put your head through.—Charles Duxton.

Today's Evansville News

Evansville, Sept. 30.—Dr. and Mrs. Dennison entertained last evening at a dinner party the following: Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Colton, Rev. and Mrs. D. A. Grabbill, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Winston, the Misses Eleanor and Marilla Andrews, Mrs. J. J. Jones, Miss Lilla Liddington, Miss Daisy Spencer and Mr. R. M. Richmond.

The Choral Union met for their first practice on Thursday evening.

It was decided to meet in the Baptist church for the concert. Work for the first mas concert, to be held in the first week in December, was begun. Members will not be admitted after the second week in October. It is hoped that all who consider joining do so at the next meeting of this Thursday evening.

Miss Alice Murphy of Oregon, visited friends here over Sunday.

Miss Nellie Devine and Lee Mikbrand visited relatives in Oregon Sunday.

Misses Pauline and Mae Brooke visited relatives in Southern Illinois over Sunday.

Miss Jessie Bacon was the guest of her parents in Oregon Sunday.

Frank Mayford and Dawson Mayford were Albany visitors Sunday.

Bernard Munson is visiting his mother in Argyle.

Mrs. Lou Johnson and little daughter were the week end guest of relatives in Beloit.

Jay Emery of Madison called on old friends here yesterday.

H. A. Letts of Monroe, an Evansville caller here yesterday.

T. S. Livingston of Madison was a business caller here yesterday.

H. C. Lawton of Milwaukee was a visitor here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Asmus and family spent Sunday at the W. Klein-smith home in Center.

Casper Marty left last night for Nilesville where he expects to make his home the coming year.

Mrs. Marty leaves for there the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rosa and son Lawrence Blaine Davis and Miss Harriet Mayford spent Sunday in Madison with Dr. and Mrs. Cook.

Miss Lura Morrison and J. S. Grindle were Brooklyn callers yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gabriel, son Brooks, daughter Fannie and Lawren Knapp motored to Madison Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Lockwood of Edgerton were over Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Slawson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Barnard motored to Madison Sunday.

Mrs. Bert Bratt and two children returned to Chicago Monday after a visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fuller spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. George Butterfield in Waukesha.

Miss Beulah Hadley spent the week end at her home in Brooklyn.

Miss Lilla Knudson spent Sunday at her parental home in Fellows.

Mrs. P. L. Myers of Janesville, was the recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Claude Rogers.

Mrs. Arthur Spalding and daughter, Mable of Janesville, are guests at the home of A. M. Van Wormer.

Miss Angie Tullis spent Sunday in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Marian Wilson and two children of Beloit, are guests at the Grant Hainey home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baker and family have returned from their summer home at Rangan, Wis.

Arthur Dennison spent the week end in Footville.

Charles Walker and son of Verona, have arrived for a visit with their cousin, Mrs. Charles Altemus. They were accompanied by John Miller of Verona and Clarence De Voe of Blanchardville.

Lot Klein-smith who was badly kicked by a horse last Thursday night is able to be out of bed and to be about on crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. August Klein-smith entertained Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kuelz of Magnolia, Mrs. Wm. Goetz and Theodore Wolf.

John Highway filled his silo yesterday.

C. Richards of Spring Valley, Minn., is visiting his nephew, John Douglas and family.

Miss Joyce Pasley and brother, Luther, of Oregon, visited over Sunday at the George Noyes home.

Mrs. Tirzah White is expected home from Michigan, where she has spent the summer, the tenth of next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Caspar Marty entertained Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. William Klein-smith and

MILTON JUNCTION

Milton Junction, Sept. 30.—Mrs. A. M. Hull passes away. Mary E. Owen was born in Lebanon Springs, N. Y., on March 20, 1855 and died at her home here September 27, 1913. In her early life she was a member of the Episcopal church. She was a graduate of Wyoming Seminary at New Lebanon, N. Y., and later graduated from the State Normal School of Albany, N. Y.

In 1885 she was married to A. M. Hull and in 1887 she joined the S. D. B. church of Berlin, N. Y. They moved to South Dakota in 1889 and in 1892 settled at Ripley, Iowa, where they resided until about three years ago, when they moved to Milton Junction.

To mourn her loss she leaves a husband, two sons, Chapin and Edward of this place, one daughter, Mrs. Harry Dugan of Ripley, Iowa, two brothers, three sisters and a host of friends wherever she has lived.

She was a member of Ladies' Aid Society of S. D. B. church of this place and also of Fortnightly Club in which she will be greatly missed as she was an ardent worker in both. Her characteristics were preeminently those of fidelity, unselfishness, courage and kindness.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the house at 2:00 o'clock. Interment at the village cemetery. Rev. H. N. Jordan had charge of the services.

Mrs. Lizzie Collins has gone to Hewitt, Minnesota for a visit.

Israel Kelly has returned to his home at Brodhead.

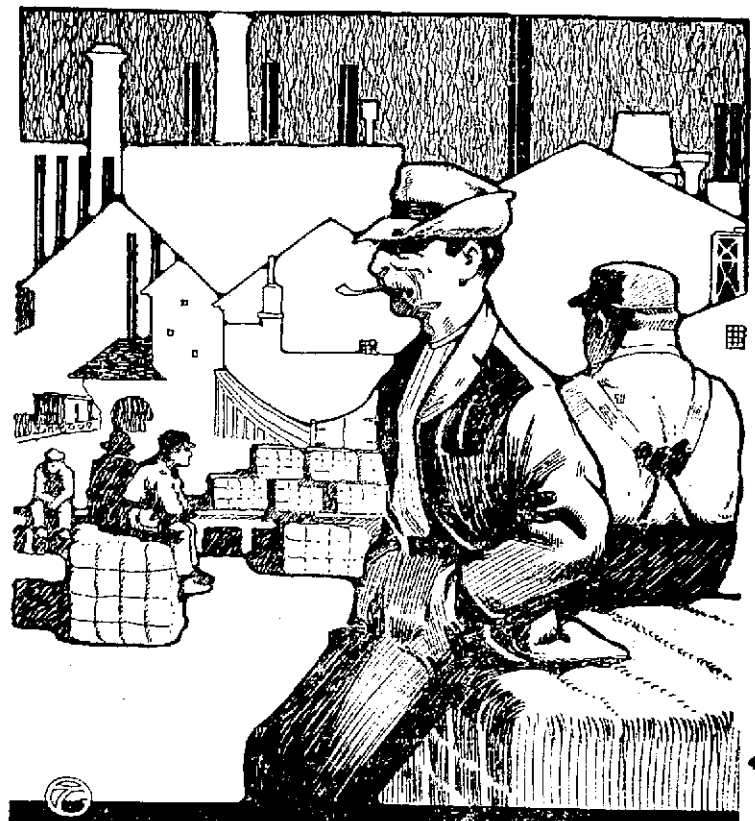

A Jack has returned from Afton.

AUCTION BILLS

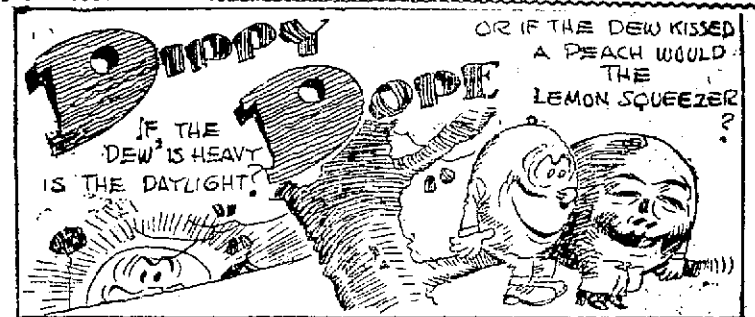

The Printing Department of the Gazette is equipped with the very newest, latest type and material for producing auction sale bills. A well printed bill makes a better sale for you. Five line classified advertisement free in the Daily Gazette with each order of bills.

Linguistic Telephone Operators.

Telephone operators in Egypt are required to speak English, French, Italian, Greek and Arabic.

Three years ago today the cotton mills of England closed, affecting 150,000 men—Sept. 30, 1910. Find a mill owner.

Fall Opening

THE BIG STORE

J. M. BOSTWICK & SONS

20-22-24-26-28-30 MAIN ST.

Janesville, Wis.

Announce Their

Grand Fall OPENING

Thursday, Friday and Saturday
Oct. 2-3 and 4th.

The Official Presentation of Autumn Fashions' Complete
Autumn Readiness.

A Marvelous Display of the new Gowns, Coats, Tailored Suits, Furs, Waists, Silks, Dress Goods and Accessories.

The Collection invites the inspection of every woman who would keep in touch with the fashion world.

The Store will be beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Everybody will be made most welcome.

Be Sure and See the DISPLAY WINDOWS

Special Feature—Music Every Afternoon and Saturday Eve.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF NOISES.
A MASQUINE contemporary of mine has expressed the editorial wish that someone would write a good essay on the psychology of noises.

It is rather surprising with all the psychological articles we have been finding in our magazines lately that none of the literary psychologists have enlightened us on this interesting subject. Everyone has noted the irritating quality of some noises, and the comparatively inoffensive character of others.

The sound we have become accustomed to seldom distracts or disturbs us no matter how loud it is. Indeed its cessation is more apt to attract attention. I believe I have already told the story in these columns of the lighthouse keeper in whose bed room a bell connected with the light sounded every half minute. I asked him how he could sleep in that din, and he answered that the only thing which would disturb him would be to have that bell stop sounding. That would wake him from the soundest sleep.

On the other hand, an unaccustomed noise, no matter how light, will often pierce the thickest armor of concentration or even arouse a man from heavy sleep. Noises which occur at regular intervals are easier to endure, I think, than a noise that keeps one guessing with its irregularity.

The slamming of a blind or the rattle of a door is trying even to comparatively steady nerves. One gets to listening and waiting for it. If it happens at night, the period of precious silence during which one might fall asleep, is usually consumed by wondering just when that blind is going to slam again. I'm sure that the universal appeal of the story of the nervous man for the occupant of the room overhead to throw down a noiseless hammer is due to the universal suffering from such irregular noises as slamming blinds or rattling doors.

A noise which I do not understand is peculiarly irritating to me. One summer I lived near a fort where there was frequent target practice. Naturally it was difficult to concentrate when every few minutes the air was torn into shreds by loud explosions. Nevertheless I eventually became sufficiently accustomed to the noise to practically ignore it. Then one afternoon a peculiar muffled roar knocked at the side doors of my brain, and concentration fled. I didn't know what it was and I never found out, and every time I heard it I would become incapable of concentration on my work.

And yet that sound wasn't one-tenth as loud as the target practice at the fort. Similarly, I can endure a most atrocious hurdy-gurdy so long as it does not play some tune which I can almost but not quite place.

A friend of mine complains that any odor which she cannot place has the same disturbing effect. No matter how busy she is the slightest whiff of an unaccustomed or indefinable odor will at once call her mind from her task. Whereas the air might be stifling with some familiar odor without disturbing her.

The sub-conscious mind and its relations to the impressions conveyed through our five channels of intercourse with the outer world is really a fascinating subject, isn't it? Please allow its fascination to be an amateur psychologist's apology for daring to dabble in it.

STORE PRESERVES THIS FALL AND HIT HIGH COST OF LIVING

There is nothing more natural or instinctive than the storing away and preparing for the cold weather. One has only to watch the squirrels and rabbits and other animals to see how they store for the days when nuts are not for their picking. I know what the average apartment dweller will say:

"I have no place for storing fruits for the winter. If I put them down in my locker it is too warm; if I have them in my kitchen it is too warm. Why, I can hardly keep a peck of potatoes."

Every word of this is true and every apartment house builder should plan for one cool closet where preserved fruit and vegetables may be kept without danger of spoiling. Every housekeeper had surely a more supplies could be laid in when they were clean in the markets. If we are obliged to purchase from day to day with the gradual rise in the markets during the winter and spring months we know we shall have to pay more.

So much of the hue and cry about high prices of foods could be overcome if we would get back to the good old custom of storing away for the winter.

Tomatoes have been fine and very cheap and yet I wonder how many housekeepers have stored by enough for the winter in cans for stewing, soups and sauces, catsup, chutney and pickles. It costs us little to make and dwindles the allowance very fast when they have to be bought every time they are wanted.

Pickled Purple Cabbage.
Cut the cabbage into quarters and then again and steam or cook in boiling salted water until tender. Have ready a sweet spiced vinegar, one cup of brown sugar to each quart of vinegar and any spices to suit the taste. If ground, tie in a cheese cloth bag and pour while hot over the cabbage. Seal in jars or cover tightly and it is good to use in a day or two. A few sliced beets add to the color, and then when some pickled eggs are desired, hard boil them and let stand several hours in the cabbage vinegar. The color is beautiful besides a very snappy taste.

Green Tomato Pickles.
Materials—Green tomatoes, one peck; large onions, six; red peppers, six; sugar, one cup; allspice, one teaspoonful; cloves, one teaspoonful; mustard, one tablespoonful; vinegar, three pints.

Directions—Wash and slice the tomatoes into a large bowl or crock. Sprinkle salt between each layer. Let stand over night. In the morning drain off all the liquor from them. Put a layer of tomatoes into the large preserving kettle, then a layer of the sliced onions and the red pepper chopped up coarsely. Add sugar and spice and turn over the vinegar and boil until tender. If this is not quite enough vinegar to cover, add more and if very strong dilute with one-third water.

Pickled Onions.
Select the small white button onion and peel. Scald them in salt and water until tender. Put them when drained into wide-mouthed jars and pour over them hot spiced vinegar as directed in the cabbage recipe. When cold seal. Keep in a dry, dark place.

Spiced Grapes.
Materials—Grapes, seven pounds; sugar, four and one-half pounds; vinegar, one pint; cinnamon, one teaspoonful; allspice, one teaspoonful.

Directions—Take the pulp from the grapes, preserving the skins. Boil the pulp and rub them through a colander to get out the seeds. Then add the skins to the strained pulp and boil with the sugar and vinegar and spices for about thirty minutes or until it begins to thicken and jelly. This is fine with meats.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: As I am a girl of fifteen I know I am too young to be in love, but as my parents have told me already a few times that they would like to see me married, I will tell you I am in love with a boy twenty-four. He is a very nice man. I know he likes my company. He told me once he wished I was seventeen so he could marry me, but I didn't answer him. But I do love him. He asked me a few times to kiss him or let him kiss me. But I didn't let him.

(1) Advise me how I can find out if he likes me or not?

(2) Is it any harm for a girl to call up a boy and talk to him?

(3) Is it any harm for a girl to wear a veil or gloves?

(4) Is it any harm for a girl to go with a boy in some place when the mother doesn't know with whom she went.

S. H.

Dear little girl, you are not physically fit to marry, no matter what your parents say. They don't want to support you any more and get a job somewhere and earn enough for your keep until you are eighteen. You really are not in love with this man, and I don't think he really loves you, if he does he will be willing to wait until you are eighteen, and give you a chance to find out if you care enough for him to marry him at that time.

(2) If you don't proper unless you really have some business to talk about.

(3) No, though a veil is almost too grown-up for a little girl like you.

(4) It's always best to tell mother where you are going and with whom you are going, and to ask her permission to go.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I put peroxide on my hair because it was dark in some places and light in others. Have I ruined it? If so, tell me how to remedy it.

The hair will grow out its natural color in time, and not worse for the experience. Constant use of the peroxide will make the hair coarse and dry and in time it will drop out.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) If a boy breaks a date with a girl, should the girl mention it to him or should he apologize if he hasn't a reason able excuse?

(2) Should a girl hold a boy's arm, or a boy hold the girl's, at night?

(3) What will remove wrinkles in the forehead?

(4) What does it mean for a boy to squeeze your hand?

(5) What will remove a cowlick?

(6) When a boy likes you and you like him and he's too bashful to ask for your company, what must be done?

CONSTANT READER

(1) Say nothing to him. He should apologize.

(2) She might take his arm if there is any real need of being helped, but ordinarily two young people are strong enough to walk alone.

(3) Stop the habit of wrinkling your forehead. Massage the wrinkles every night with a gentle rotary motion.

(4) That he likes to squeeze it, I suppose.

(5) Nothing. Persistence in training it a different way will help some.

(6) Wait for him to get up his courage to ask you. If he hasn't that much sand he's not worth having.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.
Eggs are more easily digested when cooked by being covered with boiling water and allowed to stand for five minutes.

To prepare pineapple, cut it through the center after removing the leaves. Then take a tablespoon and scrape out the pineapple. You can prepare them quickly this way with scarcely any waste.

To clean door mats, put the mat into a bath of soapy water and scrub with a hard scrubbing brush. Then rinse well in cold water, standing it up to dry.

Don't use alcohol on the face unless the skin is oily.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

ERSON said of Lincoln, "His heart was as great as the world, but there was no room in it to hold the memory of a wrong."

SUMMER PRESERVES.

The thrifty housewife feels that she has not a well stocked fruit closet unless she has several kinds of preserves.

Preserved Peaches.—This is an old Virginia recipe for preserved peaches. Pare perfect fruit and remove the stones, dropping the peaches into cold water to keep them from discoloring. When ready, drain carefully and for every five pounds of fruit, add four pounds of sugar, put a third of the amount of sugar in a preserving kettle with just enough water to keep from burning. When well dissolved put in a layer of peaches and sprinkle over it a generous layer of sugar, continue the process until all the sugar and fruit are used, heat slowly and simmer until the fruit is transparent, skimming occasionally during the process. Skim the peaches out with a skimmer and lay them in a large flat dish, taking care not to crowd them.

Put them in the sun to become firm. In the meantime boil the sirup until it is thick and clear, carefully removing all the scum. Return the peaches to the sirup just long enough to heat through, then pack in large mouthed jars. Put in a layer of fruit, then a layer of sirup until over flowing. Seal air tight. If the flavor of the pits is liked, crack a few of the kernels, boil in a little water, then add them to the jars.

Preserved Pears.—For preserving choose pears of fine flavor, but not over sweet. Peel them, leaving the stems on, dropping each in cold water after it is peeled. When enough are ready drain them, weigh and for every pound of fruit allow three quarters of a pound of granulated sugar. Pare the fruit in water to cover, take out and lay on a dish to cool. Put the sugar into the kettle in the water in which the pears were parboiled. When the sugar is dissolved, drop in the fruit and cook slowly until the fruit is transparent. Allow a lemon to every ten pounds of fruit, cut in very thin slices. Put the pears in jars, cook down the sirup and pour over them.

Ripe Tomato Preserves.—Put the peeled tomatoes in a bowl with equal weights of sugar and let stand over night, then preserve as for peaches, adding a little ginger, cinnamon and lemon juice to flavor.

Nellie Maxwell.

RENAISSANCE OF AN OLD ART.

A Gentle Craft of Our Ancestors a Favorite of Today.

The revival of any fine art that threatens to lapse into desuetude is always welcome and generally becomes a prevailing vogue for a considerable period. This is as it should be, as it tends to a rotation in the production of beautiful articles of infinite variety. The present rage for doing embroidery is a commendable passion that is absorbing a great portion of the leisure of the mothers, wives and daughters of the land. It is indeed the renaissance of one of the refined and gentle crafts in which our great-grandmothers were singularly proficient.

"The Gazette" is supplying its readers with a complete embroidery outfit, which includes 160 different designs of the latest styles, an all metal hoop on which to operate the work, and a leaflet of instructions that fully teach how to make the 24 different kinds of stitches required in this branch of art needle work. All that is necessary to obtain an Imperial Pattern Outfit is to clip six embroidery coupons from the "Daily Gazette" and present them with 68 cents at "The Gazette" office, or to be mailed, send 7 cents extra and the packet will be forwarded to any desired address.

When She Wakes Up.
Once a woman realizes that it is a very awkward and wasteful method to wash dishes with the drainboard on her right and the dishes piled on her left, she will have the drainboard changed to her left and stack her dishes on the right side where they will be most quickly get-at-able. And if she will go at her dishwashing job with the idea of eliminating every minute of waste-labor, she will also quickly learn the importance of adjusting her dishpan to the right height.

A great advertising medium—Gazette Want Ads.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.
Eggs are more easily digested when cooked by being covered with boiling water and allowed to stand for five minutes.

To prepare pineapple, cut it through the center after removing the leaves. Then take a tablespoon and scrape out the pineapple. You can prepare them quickly this way with scarcely any waste.

To clean door mats, put the mat into a bath of soapy water and scrub with a hard scrubbing brush. Then rinse well in cold water, standing it up to dry.

Don't use alcohol on the face unless the skin is oily.

Steak a la Steak—One pound of round steak, browned well with a tablespoonful of butter, then add one cup strained or unstrained tomatoes, one large or two small onions, minced fine, and two medium sized green sweet peppers chopped fine. Simmer two hours or until thick, dish and garnish with parsley.

Sweet Sandwiches.—Bake bananas in their skins until tender. Strip skin off and sprinkle with a few drops of lemon and orange juice. Add also a sprinkling of sugar, mash, and spread on thinly cut bread and butter. Before putting together as sandwiches, cover the mashed banana with grated pineapple.

Ginger Snaps.—Take two cups of molasses and one cup of shortening, boil together for three minutes, let cool, add one teaspoonful of soda

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

and two teaspoonfuls of ginger and enough flour to roll. Bake in quick oven ten minutes. These will keep for some time in a covered stone jar.

Lemon Pickle.—Twelve large lemons, half a cupful of salt, eight cloves of garlic, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg, one teaspoonful of powdered allspice, one teaspoonful of red pepper, four heaping tablespoonfuls of mustard, and half a gallon of vinegar. Peel the lemons very thinly place them in layer with salt in a jar, and leave them for a week until they are quite soft. Put them into a jar with the spices tied in a muslin bag; pour over the boiling vinegar. When cold, cover securely. Keep from two to four weeks before using them. They should have a brownish, almost transparent look, and the vinegar should be quite thick.

Women Readers!!

Have You Been Made Happy by the GAZETTE'S

PATTERN OFFER

HERE IT IS—DON'T MISS IT.

160 Very Latest Patterns

1 All Metal Hoop

1 Booklet of Instructions

Partial List of Patterns Given—Each Worth 10c

- | | | |
|---------------------------------|---|---|
| 1 Hand Bag | 1 Script Alphabet | 1 Apron (Roman Cut Work) |
| 1 Bib | 1 Bulgarian Scarf | 1 Apron (French Knots) |
| 1 Sailor Set | 14 Bulgarian Designs for Collars, Waists, Underwear, etc. | 1 Corners for Scarfs, Lunch or Table Cloths |
| 1 Baby Bonnet | 2 Bulgarian Waists | 2 Towel Borders |
| 1 Set Fleur d'lis | 1 Block Alphabet | 1 Chemise |
| 1 Candle Shade | 3 Wreaths | 1 Pillow Case End, Wreaths and Sprays |
| 1 Rose Waist | 5 Fancy Bowknots | 2 Designs for Waists |
| 1 Set Numerals | 1 Floral Basket | 1 Old Butterfly |
| 1 Collar | 1 Hand Bag | 1 Parasol Design |
| 1 Tumbler Dolly | Sprays and Figures for Child's Dress | 1 Scarf |
| 1 Pillow Case | 1 Set Sweet Peas | 1 Pillow |
| 1 Set Scallop | 1 Set Carnations | 1 Set Medallions |
| 1 Butterfly | 1 Bonnet | 1 Set Pussy Cat and Mice |
| 1 Set Old Designs | 1 Old Eng. Alphabet | 1 Pine Pillow |
| 1 Towel End | 1 Corset Cover | 1 Set Birds |
| 1 Scarf | 1 Pin Cushion | 1 Set Poppies |
| 1 Corset Cover | 1 Hand Bag | 1 Set Water Lilies |
| 1 Baby Shoe | Bulgarian Design | 1 Daisy Design |
| 1 Set Sprays | 2 Towel Borders | |
| 1 Glove Case | 2 Waists: Fruits | |
| 1 Shirt Waist | 1 Dolly | |
| 1 Baby Bath Towel | 1 Night Gown | |
| 1 Set Dish Cloth | 1 Flower Basket | |
| 1 Tie End | Butterfly, Bowknots, Conventional Flowers | |
| 1 Alphabet | | |
| 1 Baby Cap | | |
| Designs and Borders for Dresses | | |

These new and wonderful Patterns can easily—almost magically—be transferred to any kind of material in a twinkling. The Patterns are made by a secret process, which does away with the old-fashioned perforated smudgy carbons, or hot iron—all you need to do is to moisten the Pattern, and the design is instantly transferred, and each Pattern will transfer from three to five times.

Solves the Dress Problem

This is the age of dress. Nothing can ever take the place of the dainty hand embroidered fabrics. The most expensive shirtwaists, collars, lingerie, corset-covers, jabots, etc., can be made at home for a mere trifle of expense. The Imperial Pattern Outfit is a boon to mothers. Everything necessary for the girls and the baby is included.

Solves the Home Decoration Problem

Designs for table linen, guest towels, all sorts of doilies, dresser scarfs, center pieces, pillow cases, picture frames, hand bags, pin cushions, pillow tops; also numerous odd designs for borders, alphabets, rose sprays, butterflies, bowknots, wreaths, etc., etc.

Every Girl Can Become An Expert

SEVERE ITCHING AND BURNING

Eczema Began With Pimples on Lower Limbs. Constantly Tormented. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured in Ten Days.

203 Walnut St., Hillsboro, Ill.—"My child had a breaking out on the lower limbs which developed into eczema. The eczema began with pimples which contained yellow corruption and from the child's clothing they were greatly irritated. The child seemed to burn, which made the child scratch them, resulting in a mass of open places. They made her so cross and fretful that it was impossible to keep her quiet. They caused her to lose much sleep and she was constantly tormented by severe itching and burning."

"I tried several well-known remedies, but got no relief until I got a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, which did so much good that I got a large quantity that cured her in ten days after she had been affected for two months." (Signed) Mrs. Edith Schwartz, Feb. 28, 1913.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Prevent dry, thin and falling hair, allay itching and irritation, and promote the growth and beauty of the hair. frequent shampooing with Cuticura Soap, assisted by occasional dressing with Cuticura Ointment, are usually effective when other methods fail. Sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Prevent dry, thin and falling hair, allay itching and irritation, and promote the growth and beauty of the hair. frequent shampooing with Cuticura Soap, assisted by occasional dressing with Cuticura Ointment, are usually effective when other methods fail. Sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

EDISON'S SPEAKING PICTURES SUCCESS

Delighted Audience at The Wilson Theatre in Beloit Last Night—Shown at Myers Theatre Tonight.

What skepticism existed as to the merits of the genuine Edison talking pictures was removed from the mind of a representative of the Gazette by witnessing an exhibition of them given at the Wilson theatre in Beloit last evening. The synchronization, the adjustment of sound to motion, appeared to be nothing short of perfection. The speech of the actors was clear and intelligible, and the pictures clear, distinct, and devoid of the least flicker.

But the charm of the pictures is not merely in their mechanical perfection, but in the surprising innovations that they introduce, and the excellence of the acting. The Edison talking pictures are not merely the conventional motion pictures plus speech and sound; they strike out in original lines. The results closely approximate the real drama and vaudeville and even successfully reproduce the minstrel show. The talking pictures, in short are capable of a much wider scope of entertainment than the ordinary motion pictures. Ten or more numbers embracing a wide variety of numbers, ranging from "Faust" to a pretentious minstrel show were on the program last evening.

TOWN LINE

Town Line, Sept. 29th.—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Powers and daughter, Miss Alma, returned Saturday evening from an auto trip to Plano, Illinois, where Mr. Powers was a delegate to the Farmers' National Congress.

On their return trip they visited at St. Charles and Geneva, spending a most pleasant week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eddy spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Rev. C. J. Eddy, Rockford.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gower entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Jones and Roy G. Jones Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Emily Rasey returned to her home in Beloit Wednesday, after several days' visit with Mrs. L. J. Crea.

John Olson, Afton, who has been seriously ill with liver trouble for nearly four weeks, is slightly improved.

Arthur Jackson was called to Mineral Point Thursday to attend the funeral of a niece.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jones of Litchfield, Illinois, are visiting their son, Roy G. Jones and family for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knopps and family were guests of Joseph Garske, Beloit, Sunday.

Lucile and Virginia Crist were the guests of Mrs. J. C. Eddy Thursday night.

Mrs. B. Behling spent Monday at Beloit, en route to Chicago.

Miss Evelyn Talbot is the over Sunday guest of friends at Rockford and Belvidere.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jones spent Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Crea.

Stuart Throne of Beloit was the guest of Leslie Knopps Saturday night.

Dorothy Snyder entertained a number of little friends Sunday afternoon at the home of her aunt, Miss Minnie Barthling, the gathering being in honor of her tenth birthday, which occurs Sept. 30th. Pleasant refreshments were served. Those present were: Evelyn Larabee, Mary Linde, Elizabeth Linde, Mildred Steiner, Anna Knopps, Dorothy Snyder, Burton Steiner, Ralph Larabee, Stuart Throne, Leonard McGren, Paul Gregory, Percy Gregory, Leslie Knopps, Alfred Knopps.

H. M. Harstad had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse one day last week.

KOSHKONONG

Koshkonong, Sept. 30.—Ed Dingham and sister Lucy, Mrs. Belle Luyster and Mrs. Cynthia Darnuth went to Milwaukee Thursday in their auto.

R. Miller returned from a business trip to Eau Claire.

J. Kraus and son Louis and John Adams attended the Watertown fair Thursday.

Miss Anna Ludolph of Janesville, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Alex Sherman.

Ralph Marguard had one of his fingers crushed in the toe paid. A week part of the finger had to be amputated.

Scott Robinson had one of his fingers so badly crushed while feeding a silo cutter at his home Wednesday it had to be taken off. Drs. Coon and Maxon of Milton Junction, dressed the wound.

The Mite society, after having a good long rest, will meet with Mrs. Ralph Marguard, Thursday afternoon, Oct. 2.

Robert Miller Jr., acted as depot agents Thursday, during the absence of John Adkins.

Those who took prizes at the fair held at Milton Junction last week were: Harry Robinson, first on a sofa pillow, and Robert Traynor first on a rye.

Otter Creek school was closed on Thursday, on account of the fair held at Milton Junction.

Miss Bessie Shuman came up from Milton and spent Sunday with her parents.

JOHNSTOWN

Johnstown, Sept. 29.—The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Anderson passed away on Wednesday, Sept. 24. This little one came to fighten their home on the 17th and was only seven days old.

The loving sympathy of friends to the sorrowing family in this dark and lonely hour. Burial at Lima Center.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Pinnow visited at the home of his brother, Albert, Sunday.

Mrs. William Bell is improving from her recent illness.

Miss Mary Taylor has entered Beloit college.

W. A. Olson made a trip to Chicago Thursday morning, returning the next day with a carload of sheep.

Mrs. Charles Hurbut is spending a few weeks with her sisters at Black River Falls.

John Schmaling has the contract for building Emil Lorkie's new barn. Mr. and Mrs. F. Huggins and son, Horace Cunningham and Miss Butler of Janesville were Sunday guests at J. W. Jones.

Many friends attended the funeral services of Mrs. Mary White Friday morning from St. Mary's church, Rockford. Goodlooking officiating. She will be sadly missed in the home where she has been tenderly cared for by the children at home.

Mrs. Mary Kelly has returned home from an extended visit with her daughter in Chicago.

The Austin brothers and families and sister, George Charlton of Janesville, held a family gathering at the home of George Charlton, Sunday.

Miss Ruth Hemmingsway spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

Miss Florence Davis and cousin, Lucile Wright, spent Saturday night and Sunday in Fort Atkinson.

IMPROVE ROCK RIVER WITHIN FIVE YEARS

Estimate Given Rockford Power Men by United States Engineer H. E. Reeves of Sterling.

That the work of making the Rock river navigable according to proposed plans would take about five years time was the estimate given by United States Engineer H. E. Reeves in his recent conference with the Rockford water power owners. When asked of those who had filed in the river would have the made land taken from them, Mr. Reeves said that no changes would be required so long as the filling in had not been done in the stream itself.

The cost to Rockford would be $35,000 and the water power company, while admitting that they will consider the utilization of the project, believe that they should not be forced to pay the entire amount. They believe that the interests of the community are affected and especially the shipping interests.

Yesterday's meeting was an informal one, attended by most of the property owners of the water power district. Their vote was unanimously in favor of the plan. They want a meeting in which more manufacturers will be in attendance and one night will be held there in about a fortnight. Mr. Reeves will give to the Manufacturers and Shippers Association. It was one of the most important of the river in a year, that alone would greatly reduce freight rates and especially rates on steam coal.

Interviews with the Illinois water power interests.

CLINTON

Clinton, Wis., Sept. 29.—Mrs. E. K. Wakeford and daughter, Miss Mabel, of Rockford, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting friends here.

Myrtle Adams fell down stairs Saturday at the home of her brother, Walter Adams, northeast of town and broke both arms. She was brought to the home of her grandmother, Mrs. W. E. Bruce, and doctor A. S. Parker was called, which was a bad one bone protruding through the skin.

Mrs. Solon Cooper visited in Belvidere, Ill., last Sunday instead of Des Moines, Iowa, as reported.

For the home mission society to go north please leave it at Mrs. Byron Snyder's as soon as convenient.

W. O. Newhouse and son John of Janesville stopped in Clinton for dinner Sunday on their way to Rockford.

Miss Estelle Cooper, class president of Beloit College, was guest of honor at the Junior House over Sunday.

Rev. I. G. Cory left for his new field of work at Hardin, Mont., last evening. A large number of friends gathered at the depot to bid him good bye.

H. Florida has a brother from the south visiting in his home.

Leo Malooly nearly lost his hand in a corn shredder cleaning out the cutters, when the power was shut off and machine was at a standstill, he released his men to turn the wheels partly round, which when done he released the locked up spring, the engine and caused the cylinder to revolve. The knives cut the hand very badly, requiring seven stitches to close. Had the man not grabbed the belt his hand would have been cut off.

E. H. Tubbs was in Chicago Friday.

Mrs. William Wood of Delavan was here Friday.

Fred Rogers of Delavan, formerly of Clinton, who has been poor health, is reported much worse.

Mrs. A. W. Shattuck of Elgin is visiting her sister, Mrs. Crosby.

Roland Anderson, wife and child of Clinton are visiting Mrs. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Snyder.

Doctor Mary Montgomery broke her right forearm Saturday morning while cranking her auto. Doctor A. S. Parker was called and reduced the fracture.

Mrs. Eva K. Tuttle and a lady friend of Beloit were calling on friends here Saturday.

ORFORDVILLE

Orfordville, Sept. 30.—Mrs. O. E. Overlund entertained the Missionary society last Thursday, a number of out of town folks were present and a large crowd in general.

Mrs. Leve Bergh of Brodhead, visited in the city Thursday.

Ferry Loftis has been spending a few days in this vicinity.

Mrs. K. N. Grundhove entertained a host of friends last Saturday, in honor of her daughter, Clara. A fairly large crowd of friends was served and a program of four numbers was rendered. The hostess together with Misses Clara Grundhove, Clara Groveland and Mary Overlund nicely served the guests. Miss Grundhove is to be congratulated on the large crowd. It is no doubt a proof of worthy regard.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beck were Brodhead visitors Saturday.

Miss Carrie Knudson is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Raley.

Mrs. O. Burtness of Hanover, spent Thursday in town.

Messrs. John Egan and Perry Lotus, motored to Janesville Saturday.

Miss Esther Helgeson who is a nurse at the Mercy hospital, at Janesville, spent Sunday at K. N. Grundhove's.

Miss Hilda Bothum of Janesville, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Samuel Osgard.

Misses Pearl Gaarder, Lillian Hendrickson, Nellie Hendrickson, and Gertrude Vee spent Sunday at home.

Rev. Naeffert spent Sunday at the East Lutheran Valley church.

EAST CENTER

East Center, Sept. 30.—Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Roherty of Madison, a baby girl.

Dr. George Little and family of Janesville were Sunday guests at the Little home.

Mrs. Ira Fisher and son, Edwin of Janesville, were guests of Mrs. Will Dixon Saturday and Sunday.

Prof. Frank Kleinheinz of Madison, was a business visitor here Friday afternoon.

Miss Mary Fisher was unable to teach Friday and Miss Edie Crall substituted for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lurhsen and son of Beloit, were recent guests at the home of J. S. Roherty.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fisher and son, Hugh attended church services in Janesville Sunday.

Thos. Earle and family called at the Roherty home Sunday afternoon.

EDGERTON DOCTORS ARE HOSTS TONIGHT

County Medical Society Will Hold First Meeting of the Season This Evening.

Members of the Rock County Medical Society will hold their first meeting of the season at Edgerton tonight. Arrangements have been made for the physicians to take lunch together at six-thirty o'clock, and it is expected that there will be a large attendance. Several auto loads of local doctors will attend. Following is the program:

Reader—Dr. W. W. Morrison.

"Report of a Case of Glycosuria of Pregnancy," Dr. W. J. Allen.

Discussion: Dr. B. L. Cleary, Dr. M. A. Cunningham.

A Thirty Year Retrospective of Phlebotomy," Dr. W. McCleskey.

Discussion: Dr. J. F. Pember, Dr. J. M. Evans.

"Treatise in General Anesthesia," Dr. W. M. McGuire.

Discussion: Dr. G. C. Wauke, Dr. H. C. Maurer.

UTTER'S CORNERS

Utters Corners, Sept. 30.—Miss Jackson of Milwaukee was the guest of Miss B. W. Farnsworth, Saturday night and gave a very interesting talk at the church here Sunday morning. She has some thrilling experience to relate in her work as Deaconess.

Fred Doubleday and family who formerly lived here, now living on a farm near Milton, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hall.

Mrs. Alfred Lurvey entertained relatives from Geneseo Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. John Maly returned last week from Richmond Center, where she had been caring for her mother who has been critically ill the past two or three months. She reports her mother fully recovered from her sickness.

The George Hall family and Miss Fernau, autoed to Beloit Sunday, and spent the day at the home of Miss Cook's parents.

Miss Cawkins, Roy Dunbar and Mrs. John Clarke and son of Richmond, attended church here, Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Charles of Whitewater, were on our streets Sunday in their new auto.

Miss Lorena Lurvey visited friends in Milwaukee from Friday until Monday.

Albert Guernsey is putting up a silo on his farm this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Roe entertained company from Fort Atkinson Saturday night and Sunday.

C. E. Litter and family of Whitewater, were out to their farm here Sunday.

Mrs. O. B. Roe visited relatives in Milton one day last week.

Leonard Linger went to Hebron, Saturday, for a few days' visit at the home of his parents.

Mrs. Gus Goodren and family enjoyed a visit from her brother of Fairbairn, Sunday.

P. S. Teeshorn of North Richmond, was a caller at the Roy Farnsworth home Sunday.

The L. A. S. will meet with Mrs. Ned Hag Thursday afternoon of this week.

Mrs. Fred Hadley and family entertained her sister, Miss Emma Roe from Friday night until Sunday evening.

Miss Elizabeth, McCormick has returned from her trip and takes and reports a very enjoyable time.

AFTON

Afton, Sept. 30.—C. C. Cunningham, a member of the Junior class of Beloit college, who gave a most excellent talk at the Baptist church Sunday, will occupy the pulpit again next Sunday morning at 11:30. It is desired that everyone interested in the church work at Afton, be present as matters pertaining to that work will be discussed after the church service.

Last Sunday evening one of the most pleasant social events of the season, in this village was planned and carried out by Miss Emma Drafaht. The occasion being the thirty-fifth anniversary of Miss Drafaht's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Drafaht. It was also Mrs. Drafaht's 54th birthday. It was a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Drafaht, who however recovered sufficiently to act as most pleasant host and hostess. About twenty-five guests were present who enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Elegant refreshments were served by the Misses Eselle and Drafaht.

Fred Brinkman of Wilmette, Illinois, was the over Sunday guest of his uncle, John Brinkman.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garske entertained Mr. and Mrs. Gregor Manthey of Janesville, last Sunday.

People coming from church Sunday morning, witnessed a runaway, which it is thought came down Afton hill headed toward the north. The team, a very nice span of black horses, attached to a top buggy, when they passed the church, were drawing the buggy by one trace, while the splintered tongue was found part way up the hill. The same team was driven toward the south by two young men shortly before. But it could not be learned who they were or what started the runaway. No one was in the buggy when it passed through the village on the return trip. It is thought that no one was hurt.

If you are looking for bargains, watch the want ads.

Better Dumplings

Occasionally, even the best cooks have difficulty in making light, delicate dumplings and steamed or boiled puddings.

Not from lack of skill, but from the failure of the baking powder to do its work properly do its work.

Because it raises at just the right time and in just the right manner, you can always depend on

Children rush in where climbers fear to tread.—Judge.

Revised by a Parvenue.

Children rush in where climbers fear to tread.—Judge.

Revised by a Parvenue.

Children rush in where climbers fear to tread.—Judge.

Revised by a Parvenue.

Children rush in where climbers fear to tread.—Judge.

Revised by a Parvenue.

Children rush in where climbers fear to tread.—Judge.

Revised by a Parvenue.

Children rush in where climbers fear to tread.—Judge.

Revised by a Parvenue.

Children rush in where climbers fear to tread.—Judge.

Revised by a Parvenue.

Children rush in where climbers fear to tread.—Judge.

Revised by a Parvenue.

